WATERTOWN HERE SATURDAY

Arsenal Turners Back on Schedule After Long Layoff

Watertown comes to Winchester Saturday afternoon for a football game with Winchester High on Manchester Field, commencing at 2:30, and to those whose acquaintance with local football is not too recent, the return of the arsenal brings back memories of the old days when both schools were members of the now defunct Mystic League.

Winchester and Watertown staged many a tight-lipped struggle in those days, when Mansfield was coaching here and the local's present mentor, Henry Knowlton, was a rip-roaring left halfback and football captain. What the resumption of relations will bring forth remains to be seen, but tomorrow's game is sure to be interesting for no other reason than to see these two old rivals on the same gridiron once more.

Watertown is reputed to have a big rugged team that has started well because of inexperience. It lost its opener to Saugus, 25-0, and played a scoreless tie with Dedham last Saturday.

Winchester too, has shown flashes of real power, but also has been handicapped by the lack of starting-lineup experience of most of its players. The local boys have shown defensive weakness on the flanks in the center of the line, despite the fact that it has a lot of big husky youngsters in its squad.

Coch Knowlton figured to start the same team against Watertown that took the field against Lexington, unless a change should be made at one of the tackles and at one of the ends.

Whittemore will play center flanked by Johnny Rutherford and Fran Herlihy at guards, Nichols and Derro will probably start at tackle and Armstrong and Jackson at ends. Buzzotta, Capt. Hagerty and West will be the starting backfield.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

This morning the high school pupils were entertained at an assembly by Mr. Jennings and his band.

Mr. David F. Kotkov, will direct this annual Junior-Senior play which is to be presented Saturday evening, Dec. 15. Mr. Kotkov is teacher of Spanish at the high school.

Miss Pauline Crockett, teacher of English, will serve as adviser to the staff of the Abojona. Under the leadership of Miss Crockett, the Winchester High School Yearbook, "The Star," is being prepared.

As a part of the observance of American Education Week, Winchester High School will hold Open House on Thursday evening, Nov. 15.

Our boys by the thousands are returning from overseas and are being welcomed to waiting homes to resume peace time activities while other less fortunate souls maintain and die in the world they have suffered to make peace.

These hospitals are short of the personnel necessary for efficient operation and staff assistants are much needed to help carry on the work of rehabilitation.

There must be some patriotic citizens in our community who are willing to do their little for those who have done so much.

A class for the instruction of applicants will be held early in the month. Apply to local headquarters for further information.

Assistant field directors are needed for domestic and overseas service. Good pay plus maintenance is offered men between 30 and 60 years of age. Apply at once.

There is a generous supply of yarn at headquarters for the use of those who enjoy knitting socks for those who will enjoy wearing them. Call for your supply.

WINCHESTER WAR VETERANS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

An announcement has been made that the Winchester War Veterans Advisory Committee, which is located in the Public Library Building, will be open every Wednesday night from 7 to 10 p. m., and every Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 p. m.

According to the general chairman, Mr. Donald Heath, a number of returning veterans have made use of the Committee's facilities. While not a great deal has been published about this committee for no other reason than to see these two old rivals on the same gridiron once more.

There is a general counseling group composed of Erskine N. White, William J. Croughwell, Howard H. Bartlett and Dana M. Cotton. These counselors are in a position to give veterans the latest information on their rights and benefits in connection with military service.

Employment, Ralph W. Bonnell, Education, Samuel M. Graves, Government Loans, Leslie J. Scott, State and Federal Aid, John J. Keefe.

Medical, Richard W. Sheehy, M. D., Insurance, J. Waldo Bond. An interesting booklet for veterans outlining the counsel and assistance that can be given has just come off the Winchester Star press. It was printed through funds made available by the Winchester Service Fund of the Salvation Army.

It is the desire of the Committee that every Winchester service man and veteran have a copy of this booklet. A large number of them will be mailed to men in the service where their addresses are available. However, due to the sudden ending of the Japanese war a good many of the boys and girls in the service have moved about and have had changes in address. If any parents or relatives want a copy of this booklet to mail to their service man, it can be had by requesting it from Donald Heath at the Town Treasurer's office.

Application forms for the State Bonus may be obtained at the office of the Town Treasurer. These forms must be signed by a member of the Board of Assessors at the city or town in which the applicant resides as of Jan. 1, 1945, or he or she entered the service.

UNITED WAR FUND REQUESTS OMISSION OF CHILD-LEYS NAME

Through a most unfortunate omission, the name of Dr. Howard Keyes was omitted from the Greater Boston United War Fund in the past and to assure him of the Committee's regret at this oversight.

"The omission of Dr. Chidley's name was an error and I wish to thank him publicly for his wholehearted support of the Greater Boston United War Fund in the past and to assure him of the Committee's regret at this oversight."

Seven Winchester agencies—Home for Aged People, Social Service Council, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Council of Girl Scouts, Red Cross, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, District Nursing Association, and the Winchester Hospital—receive financial assistance from the Fund. MEETING OF THE HOME CHURCH GUILD

Dr. Chidley Addresses Meeting

A meeting of the Home Church Guild of the First Congregational Church last Tuesday Mrs. Charles H. Tisdler, President, and Mrs. James H. Coon, had charge of the devotional service.

Dr. Chidley gave a skillfully condensed sketch of his ministry, telling of his early experience in the backwoods of Canada. His religious antecedents were a Wesleyan Methodist mother and an Episcopalian father. Dr. Chidley showed the Congregational denomination from conviction because of the liberty of thought and action offered by the church.

The fortieth anniversary of Dr. Chidley's ministry in Winchester falls on the coming November 4th. He gave some interesting highlights of the changes in the town and the church since his coming here. While the population has doubled during that time, the membership of the church has tripled.

The three functions of a minister, preaching, administrative and pastoral, were discussed by Dr. Chidley. He said the minister is called to write a sermon, but not preaching, as he was never sure when he took a sermon into the pulpit it would be successful. He pointed out that the minister's calling during the years he had been in Winchester. He said that the administrative function of a minister is a large church today was one of the most important features of a minister's work as it included both executive ability and imagination.

In closing Dr. Chidley said that all indications point to the fact that Protestantism is declining in order to define what Protestants believe.

The meeting was followed by refreshments in charge of Mrs. Walter W. Whinslip and Mrs. Robert M. Keeney.

AMBROSE WINS SILVER STAR

First Lt. Ralph T. Ambrose, US Army, of 324 Washington St., of Vine street and brother of Postmaster Vincent C. Ambrose, has been awarded the Silver Star Medal and Citation for Gallantry in Action on April 14 in Italy while serving as a rifle platoon leader in the famed Japanese American 442nd Central Postal Directory.

The medal was presented by Brig. Gen. Francis H. Oxx, commanding officer of the Peninsular Base Section, Main Army Service Force in the Mediterranean Theatre of Operations, where units of the 442nd are now guarding German prisoners of war. The ceremony took place in Leghorn, Italy, and it is of interest that the 442nd is the most decorated unit in the army and is reported coming from that city.

The citation accompanying Lt. Ambrose's award reads in part: "Lt. Ambrose was in command of two platoons who were ordered to clear stubborn enemy forces from Mt. Pizzaculo. A few minutes after the attack was launched the foe opened fire. Skillfully ambushed the situation, Lt. Ambrose ordered one platoon to secure the left flank and personally led the other platoon up the enemy's forward slope. The foe, caught by the boldness and speed of the right squad's maneuvers, yielded four killed and nine captured, together with three machine guns, one 81mm mortar and one 120mm mortar.

Quickly reorganizing on the crest of the hill, he then led the other platoon down the reverse slope and outflanked the enemy. Resulting in capturing seven together with two 20mm. cannons, one bazooka and two machine guns. Leaving his men under cover, he proceeded alone for 50 yards unopposed to the line to locate the enemy weapons. Returning for his bazooka team, he then silenced the guns and bottled up the remaining enemy on the hill, killing 10 and capturing 25, and thus enabling our troops to hold the commanding ground above heavily fortified enemy-occupied Fort Bastone."

Lt. Ambrose, a graduate of Winchester High School and Boston College was an assistant buyer at William Filene's Sons Co. in Boston before entering the service. He joined the Japanese American Citizens League in France, serving with them during the Rhineland, North Apennines and the Po Valley Campaigns, receiving the battle participation star for each. He has also received the Distinguished Unit Badge and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

Mr. Albert Seferian, teacher of science and mathematics at the Walcott Building, was elected assistant coach of football.

The School Committee authorized Supt. Norris to close schools on Friday, Oct. 26, to permit the teachers to attend the annual meeting of the Middlesex County Teachers' Association if they desire to do so. A poll of the teachers in the various buildings proved that they are in favor of attending the meeting. Schools will be closed on Friday, Oct. 26.

Mr. Norris has instituted the custom of meeting with the Principals on the first and third Wednesdays of every month.

American Education Week will be observed throughout the school system. President Arthur Butters of the Winchester Teachers' Club has appointed a committee to work with him and Mr. Norris in planning special programs for the week of Nov. 12-16.

Of interest to Winchester is the announcement of the birth on Sept. 25 of a son, James Sidney Allen, 3rd, to Mr. and Mrs. William Sherry Allen of Rochester, N. Y. Grandparent honors are shared by Mr. and Mrs. James S. Allen of Highland avenue and Prof. and Mrs. William A. Frayer of Ann Arbor, Mich.

HOME IS WHERE YOU HANG YOUR HEART

"Home" gained a new meaning during the war years. With G. I. Jones and James throughout the world longingly dreaming of home and the happy day when once again they would be back at the family hearth-side, "home" became, not just the place you hang your hat, but the place you hang your heart.

Homemakers, now that the war is over, are turning eager eyes toward making home attractive and comfortable. Former war-scarce products are beginning to appear once again in the market. Dorothy Ellis at 534 Main street, Winchester, is playing an important role in helping Mrs. Winchester redecorate and renew her home furnishings.

Dealers in linens, draperies, curtains, blankets and decorating materials, Dorothy Ellis offers beauty and reliability in the nationally-known products it offers.

The new Texaco shower curtains, attracting wide attention for their smart appearance and their water-repellent and mildew-resistant qualities are a standard Dorothy Ellis feature. The quality heavy cretonnes and drapery materials bearing the famed F. Schumacher name are another Ellis-distributed product. And those fluffy, man-sized Martex towels in rainbow colors are also offered by Dorothy Ellis.

Curtains, practically non-existent during the war years, are another Ellis attraction. The Winchester shop specializes in curtains, with emphasis upon the cottage set curtains—not the common run-of-the-mill curtains usually found in department stores, but cottage sets carrying out the original ideas of Dorothy Ellis. Custom-made draperies, colorful or conservative, are another Ellis specialty. And the shop carries a complete line of drapery fixtures, rods and brackets.

As restrictions are lifted and more items are available, Dorothy Ellis will have them. Gingham blankets have been ordered and delivery in the near future is expected. Percale sheets and pillow cases, the shop reports, will soon be available, too.

WINCHESTER 13, LEX- INGTON 0

Belino Star of First Half Victory

Little Sammy Belino delighted his public last Saturday afternoon by running a winning 100-yard dash in the first half of the downs as Winchester beat a surprisingly good Lexington High team on March Street Field, 13-0.

One of the biggest crowds to see a home opening game in years was on hand, and there was a good sized Lexington delegation to cheer on the visitors, who made quite a game of it during the first period.
Before the half a thunder storm broke and drenched both players and crowd, making conditions bad for play during the remainder of the game.

Armstrong kicked off for Winchester and Lexington opened a drive that started on its 39 and went along smoothly until Mario Buzotta intercepted a pass at his own 17 and got back to his 22 before being downed.

With Belino and West ripping off good gains Winchester drove to midfield, from where West plunged twice for a first down at the Lexington 40.

Here Murray broke through to drop Hagerty for a five yard loss on a reverse and then Armstrong nudged a scoring pass after a nice try on an overhead ball. Another pass was grounded and Hagerty kicked to the Lexington 15. Lexington plugged along to first down and then kicked, Belino making a nice running catch about his 35 and dodging to the Lexington 43 before being downed.

A tight packed line stopped
West at center for a yard loss, but Belino got away off his own right end for a whirl to the Lexington 32 and a first down. West was stopped once and then belled his way through for six yards before Belino again brought the crowd to its feet with a whirling, dodging gallop to the Lexington 9.

Lexington braced to stop West, but Winchester sent Hagerty in-
end and Capt. James really streaked away from the Lexington sec-ondaries to score standing up at the far corner of the field. Hagerty also split the uprights for the extra point with a pretty kick from placement.

Armstrong kicked again and Lexington started, but with a yard to go on third down a clipping ne-gally put the ball back on the 19 and Lexington kicked, a long spiral which Belino again ran back beautifully, from his 45 to the Lexington 15, dodging and twisting and driving along after being apparently stopped twice.

It was literally pouring at this point, but the crowd shook the water from its eyes and refused to leave the stands while West and Belino sloshed through for eight yards in three tries before Sammy got away around his own right end to skid outside at the Lexington 2 yard line.

Once Lexington stopped West at center, but on second down the big fullback slanted off his right tackle to go over standing up. Hagerty's attempt at placement was wide of the mark as the rain poured down.
Belino got a couple of easy cuts under his eye as he set up the second touchdown and was taken out of the game, the stands giving him a big hand as he was reluctantly escorted from the field by "Doc" McManus, Big Mario Buzotta, injured at Swampscott, was again bumped a bit last Saturday and taken out, but neither injury was considered serious.

There was no score in the second half, Coach Knowlton using substitutes freely in an effort to see what some of the second stringers can do under pressure. The locals had the ball inside the Lexington one yard line as the final whistle blew. The summary:

JUNIOR AND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOLS ANNOUNCE NEW TIME SCHEDULE

From the office of Principal Raymond Dickman of the Winchester Junior High School has been issued the following letter:
To the Junior High School Parents:
For a number of years, parents have expressed, repeatedly, their desire that some different arrangement be made for the noon and lunch hour at the Junior High School. We are sure you will be pleased at the change we hope to make soon.

School will begin as usual with the doors open at 8:15 a. m. and the last bell at 3:30 a. m. This will be a half hour lunch period from 11:10 a. m. to 11:40 a. m.
School will close at 2:26 p. m.

The new arrangement will mean that all pupils will eat either at the High School cafeteria, or at home, if time permits.
The students who do not wish to purchase lunch at the cafeteria may bring their lunch from home, and if they wish may buy a drink or dessert.

Acting Principal Samuel M.
Graves of the high school, and nurses that in order to co-operate with the Junior High School in the matter of lunch room requirements, the high school will open 15 minutes later and the hours will change from 8:15-2:11 to 8:30-2:26.

This is being done to facilitate the Junior High School lunch schedule. The cafeteria will be open for the Junior High School from 11:10 to 11:40, High School
A Lunch will be from 11:45 to 12:06 and H Lunch from 12:30 to 12:54. This makes both lunch periods in the high school 15 minutes later than at present.

The new hours become effective
Monday, Oct. 15.

"SWEDE" NELSON SPEAKER AT MEN'S CLUB DINNER

The Men's Club of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting Oct. 2, devoting the entire evening to a football dinner.
Twenty-two members of the Winchester football squad and Coaches Knowlton and Stevens attended as special guests. Mr. Ernest Dade entertained 22 members of the Winch Warr Hard Co. as his personal guests, bringing the total attendance close to 100.

The speaker, "Sweide" Nelson, famous coach and player gave an interesting gridiron talk. He told of his experiences as a player and coach, highlighting Harvard's 7-6 victory over Oregon in the Rose Bowl in 1920. For the past four years Mr. Nelson has been touring service camps and hospitals in this section of the country.

This was the second meetin of the club this season and a sample of the entertainment the members can expect throughout the year.

High School Hockey

CANDIDATES OUT

Coach Deborah Matthews has her Winchester High School field hockey candidates out regularly now preparing for the opening game of the current season which is on Oct. 10 with Arlington at Winchester.

The showing of the squad to date seems to indicate that Winchester should have a pretty fair club this fall, with five letter players available as well as a flock of second team letter winners.

inner is a hard fighting player who is also a good leader and Har-bar "Rabbit" Donaghey, ace swimmer, is a diminutive but ef-
Jean Browning has been shifted to center half from wing this year and looks good in her new
back, is clearing well and handling her stick smoothly while Patty Root's experience in goal last year should stand her in excellent stead this season.

Second team letter players back include Patsy Eberle, Jane Sharon, Ellen Bayles, Libby Penno, June
Moffette, Rosanne Borden, Barbara
Howe, Sue Neiley, Dotty Byford,
Carolyn Reeves, Joan Kerrigan, Mary Seaton, Ellen Hight, Helen

And we haven't heard yet what Dewey knows about Pearl Harbor

Perhaps there are still some living who remember the old slogan of our departed Ruler that "we planned it that way." Some planning we say as we look over the Nation today.

Sen. Elliott, we read "has no moral obligations" at all in those loans running to nearly a million dollars. The taxes due the Nation and the money lost by the investors simply don't exist.

Wild rumors seem to be going about town over the coming elimination of the grade crossing in the center. The most disquieting report is the fact that the method and plans are already settled and nothing remains to be done now but to arrange the final details. The town officials, it is reported, are empowered to adopt any plan they desire and carry the project out. Among other rumors is the plan to cut the Congregational Church lawn in halves, run a street up on the hill at the top of the street, create a traffic circle and then across the railroad and Main street by an overhead structure. Another plan, it is reported, starts at Warwick Place on Main street crossing the Parkway and Manchester Field on a trestle and joining Church street west of the Winchester Trust Company's building. Be these plans correctly reported or not, it seems to the Star that the Town of Winchester is entitled to be informed of the schemes and pass upon them. The Town, we hear, will take what it is given and presumably like it. But if our Selectmen did not feel equal to decide the moving picture question, the important grade crossing matter should be similarly handled. The Star has always regarded the old Kellaway Plan as the most suitable and feasible for this project — and the schemes and plans put forth have run into the hundreds. Why cannot the Kellaway Plan still be adopted? At least let the Town know and have a say in these new ideas.

WINTER POND STILL IN THE AIR

To the Editor of the Star
By golly, I think it was a fine, sporting thing for Mr. Sanderson to, comin' right out in public admittin' that Winter Pond "should be weeded". I sort of been waitin' and hopin' somebody would agree with me about somethin' sometime about them ponds. Or should I say swamps?

"Course I suppose its all right for me to sort of re-iterate (or whatever that word is what means repeat) that's what I told 'em when the Committee and them engineer fellers was writin' high-fal-utin words about drainage, the laws of avarice, diggin' ditches, the laws of the town and the state and may-be somepin' about the New Deal. I don't quite remember all the technical things they said. You'll remember, I'm sure, I got publicly razzed by them engineer fellers for suggestin' that what's the matter with them ponds (or swamps) is that the vegetation stuff is suckin' up the water faster than the Lord and his rain can fill 'em up. I remember how I got smacked right back in my place by Mr. Sanderson and them other educated fellers when I suggested water still runs down hill and absorbents still absorb."

I'm sorry now I said anything about bein' an ol' L-told-you-so and Mr. Sanderson certainly made my face very red by tellin' in his letter in the Star Sept. 21, how this weedin' outter be done by "boats with long rakes". Maybe the high school boys and girls could get up a rakin' party—huh?

What a meddlin' Ol' fool I was to suggest a year or two ago, when the bottom of one side of the pond was nice and dry and the other darned near so and yer didn't need no boat or boats, that a bulldozer or a half-dozen guys with grub hoses could clean them bottoms free of vegetation in jig time. Gosh darn it, course I otter knowed they don't do things that a way now-a-days. Course its more sensible to do it the hard way—it takes more time, helps make 50,000,000 jobs and helps boost the tax bills. I just can't seem to get myself modernized and forget my old-fashioned ways of using common, ordinary horse sense and doin' things the easy way.

But by gosh, somebody ought to tell Mr. Sanderson the war is over. But then, I'll bet he was on his vacation when they had V-E Day and V-J day. He musta been or he'd never have written in his letter what you put in your paper Sept. 21 (and I quote, as Tom Dewey—remember him?—used to say on the radio) "when Wildwood street is rebuilt which is planned soon after the war". What's he mean, Mr. Editor, AFTER the war? Must be one of them figgers in a speech I read about in Harpers Weekly one time. Or maybe those super-educated fellers insist on waiting for Congress to declare the end of hostilities. I'll bet that's it—huh?

And another thing, Mr. Editor, if I wasn't a "stupid ol' meddlin' fool" I'd have thought up that stupendous solution Mr. Sanderson writ about in his piece to your paper—you know, the "water still runs down hill" solution. I believe that part of the pond of Woodside road should be filled and a small playground created."

Now, by cracky, there's a smart solution! Fill 'er up as they tell me yer can now say to the gashation boys. He's right, Mr. Editor, that WOULD solve it and by gum I was just plain dumb not to have thought of that one. I'll let the people who built or bought their homes around that side of the pond, figuring they had a nice suburban place with a water-view to boot, would just love having a dump there while they were a fillin' and it sure would raise the value of their properties to have them located right smack on the edge of a public playground. Heck, I should have thought of that one too. Course it might be kind of noisy for those people who live around the pond but the Selectmen or Chief Rogers could make a rule that no one could play in the playground after dark and it should be quiet there at night. I'll bet those home-owners around the east side of the pond would like to have their taxes reduced, too, for a nice, noisy playground ought to make their property worth about two-thirds or maybe half as much as it was when they bought it on the side of a lovely little pond.

Gosh darn them State House fellers. Tryin' to take away our town prerogatives like the late F. D. R. snatched away our State rights. Somethin' otter be done about how they don't let town's do nawthin' 'cept what can't be done. Mr. Sanderson tells us that they give us "control" of fishing, bathing and recreational purposes, but they want let us have nawthin' to do with the care of the pond. The old meanies. Quaint sense of humor they got, though, lettin' us control the fishin' and the bathing—especially in the east side of the pond. Wonder if we ought to get a State permit to smack them musketeers who have rizzed themselves by the millions while our leadin' towns-folks fiddled.

And speaking of the State House fellers, did anything ever come of my suggestin' that Mr. Richardson, the grocery-store feller we've had up at the Beacon Hill emporium for quite a while, might know somebody up there who we could interest in our problem? Course, since I made that suggestion, Maurice Tobin snuk in up there, but he's a feller what's all ways open to listen to somethin' that might please some voters. Feller told me the other day that Maurice, and a couple other Democrats could use some votes from Winchester where, so they tell me, Democrats are out-numbered like the mosquitoes outnumber the drops of water in Winter Swamp. Couldn't Mr. Richardson maybe try and make some kind of a dicker with Maurice or somebody? Or would that be illegal—I dunno.

They tell me, however, that the State House has been doing business in the same old way even during the last two years and I heard—in fact I read in the papers that a lotta towns and cities what had active fellers a blowin' their horns got quite a lotta things done.

A distinctive service always attended by a capable staff to serve your best interests.

But then I suppose, 'aint dignified for us conservative Winchester folks to ask 'em for nawthin' when we got so much out here and only one "great pond" of eyesore and mosquito breeder like Winter Swamps. I seen some towns that have two and even three or four eyesores and I guess we otter be thankful we aint got no more.

In closing, Mr. Editor, want you please tell Mr. Sanderson that I did, and do appreciate the kind and public invitation he give me to get in touch with him and his Committee a year or so ago. 'Twas nice too, for him to dare me in the Star asking me to come out and take a public bow. My grandmother, when she was alive, told me one time if I took a job and couldn't seem to get it done and get stymied, to stick a ol' red herring up on a stick and yell real loud "Hey, look at this feller". Grammie had the reputation of being a smart ol' dame but I never did get around to findin' out if her scheme would work. What do you think?

Just the thought of an ol' guy like me appearin' in public—guys for public appearances, what with knowin' what I mean by public—takin' one of them town jobs and gittin' my name right out in the pa-

Besides, confidentially, I aint been able to keep my wardrobe up where its presentable for public appearances, what with the clothing shortage and that rationin' business and things—you know how its been. Besides, Mr. Editor, wouldn't I be likely to be criticized if I should get out in public and try and take any bows when, by gosh, Mr. Sanderson and his boat-weedin' and fillin' up has gone and solved the whole darned problem.

Them darned printers of yours seem to always leave somethin' out of Mr. Sanderson's letters or else they don't print 'em right—or maybe I'm just a plain ol' dumb fool and cant understand. Maybe you can tell me, Mr. Editor.

What does Mr. Sanderson's paragraph mean which reads—"This whole matter should be handled by the Board of Selectmen and pond can be made a beautiful spot instead of a catch-all as it is now?"

Gosh darn it, Mr. Editor, what's Mr. Sanderson want to go and toss in the sponge for and go and admit the ponds CAN be made beauty spots and go and give the Selectmen a chance to take all the credit for when he's already gone and solved the whole dangled problem by the methods he advocated in his letter.

Kidda cute of him, wasn't it, to wait a whole darned year to give me a chance to get in touch with him when he knew the solution—the cutie—the whole darned time. Modesty sure is a virtue, aint it? Old Doc Hoss Sense

KELLAWAY PLAN BEST

It is rumored that a decision is soon to be made upon a plan to eliminate Winchester's admittedly bad grade crossing. In 1929, in connection with the eminently satisfactory improvement of the town's waterways, Herbert J. Kellaway, the landscape architect responsible for that improvement, worked out the Kellaway Plan to show what can be done to eliminate the grade crossing here. The Star felt it was a good plan when Mr. Kellaway submitted it 16 years ago, and still feels, after seeing the other plans currently under consideration, that it is the best solution of the town's grade crossing problem, the most feasible and helpful to the proposed civic center toward the consummation of which the town has been planning for some time.

Ralph T. Johe, chairman of the Winchester Greater Boston United War Fund Drive for 1946, confers in the last hours of the Drive with James Nowell, chairman of special solicitations, and Harold S. Fuller, chairman of the Metropolitan division and a local solicitor. The Drive ends Sunday with a Community Sing in the Winchester Town Hall.

"NOW IS THE TIME"—UNITED WAR FUND DRIVE

Spurred by redoubled and enthusiastic efforts of hundreds of local volunteer workers and solicitors, the Winchester Greater Boston United War Fund Drive—the Victory Drive—ends this Sunday. The goal for Winchester this year is $39,000.

"The goal for our town is a big one," states Ralph T. Johe, chairman of the Drive. "But the need is great. Peace has brought additional needs, additional obligations to our servicemen from us. The fund gives each of us a personal way of reaching out to the boys in the occupied countries, and showing that we are still carrying on until the last of them is back home. In addition to this need, there are the needs of our allies in countries devastated by war, and of our neighbors who call upon the Red Feather agencies in time of need and trouble."

"This week-end will put us over our goal, if each solicitor uses Friday and Saturday to make his calls and gets his kit turned in before the deadline on Sunday. Our goal will be reached and perhaps we can go over that goal of $39,000 is every person in Winchester gives to the Fund, and takes as a personal theme the Victory slogan of "now is the time". I urge each worker to be ready with his kit by Sunday, and to come to the Community Sing on Sunday evening at the Town Hall."

Seven Winchester agencies are aided by the Fund, including the Home for the Aged, Social Service Council, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, District Nursing Association, and Winchester Hospital. Last year 2613 Winchester residents received direct benefit from the Red Feather agencies.

Mr. Johe has been assisted by Howard R. Bartlett, Roland H. Parker, Harlow Russell, Sherman B. Russell as vice chairmen, Stanley McNeilly was in charge of stores and factories; George L. Chaffield, special events; James Nowell, special solicitations; Mrs. Forrest L. Pittman, administration; Charles A. Myers, worker training; Mrs. James Coon, education division, and Mr. Ralph Blatchford, publicity.

What is Peace?

PEACE is more than the absence of war. Peace is a friendly handclasp, small talk on a front porch, friends in for dinner.

Peace is a birthday party, a Christmas tree, an Easter service in a white church. Peace is telling someone where the Smiths live, laughing at a joke, asking a neighbor what you can do when there's sickness in his house.

Peace is people helping instead of hurting one another, trusting instead of suspecting, tolerating instead of hating.

Peace is forgetfulness of creed and color. It's meeting on equal terms. It's honoring a man for what he is instead of defaming him for what he isn't.

This is peace. And until we have all this, we won't have real peace—the feeling in our hearts that all is right once more.

Right now, we can make a good start towards this goal. For, right now, in our local community campaign, we have the chance to help our neighbor. To help him regardless of who he is or how he worships. To act together in mutual trust and confidence.

And this is democracy in its finest expression. This is part of all we are fighting for. This is what you help to bring about when you contribute to the local community chest. Make your contribution today—and make it as big as your heart!

RECORD RAMBLINGS

The sensation of the moment among record buyers is the release of Bing Crosby's new album "Going My Way" now available at SAYBROOK STORES. Bing sings "Too-Ra-Loo-Ra-Loo-Ral", "Swinging on a Star", "Ave Maria" and others from his hit picture of the same name. Be sure to order your copy quickly.

A new sentimental lyric, bound to catch on is called "If You Only Knew", particularly pleasing to the ear when the discing is by Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra and vocalized by Bob Eberly. For a bit of contrast in rhythm and mood, you'll find "He Didn't Ask Me" on the reverse side, with a vocal by that slick chick, Helen O'Connell. A crazy bit of patter and percussive orchestration is on a new Majestic platter called "Horses Don't Bet on People." You'll feel sure you're at the race track when you hear the Korn Kobblers feed you this dish of corn. Backed by an equally absurd version of "Sylvia" this is a live wire your next party.

A new unpretentious album of tunes that have stood the test of time are presented by Capitol in an attractive package called, "Dreaging." Arranged and conducted by Paul Weston. Here is a tasty program of choice instrumental tunes of "Rain", "My Blue Heaven", "If I Love Again" and others that will insure you of a half hour of restful, relaxing listening.

The public's pianist, Jose Iturbi, has just recorded "Clair de Lune" and "Liebestraum" in his celebrated artistry. This has wide popular appeal since Iturbi played the former number in a recent film. You will be delighted with the high quality of reproduction in this Victor disc.

A new album in the cello repertoire is now in stock at SAYBROOK STORES. Raya Garbousova, eminent cellist, who has performed with Boston Symphony and will make another appearance this season, has recorded six well known cello selections. Accompanied by Eric-Igor Kahn at the piano, Miss Garbousova gives a vibrant and intelligent interpretation of "The Swan", "To the Evening Star", "Malaguena" and three other well known compositions arranged for this instrument.

A timely recording is the Pops brilliant fanfare of "When Johnny Comes Marching Home". Backed by a rousing arrangement of the Yankee Doodle theme, this is the kind of music that all of us enjoy. This is reminiscent of the hit "Salute to Our Fighting Forces" which was so popular with youngsters as well as adults. Have you ever heard the brilliant Boston

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Many of you women who worked faithfully making surgical dressings for the Red Cross or spending hours on short wartime needs have enjoyed well deserved relaxation during the summer. Now, however, some of you are ready to give some time for the good of your country but are not quite sure how to go about it. If you are interested in young girls in other words in a very important part of the future of the world, you would find real satisfaction in working with the Girl Scouts. They receive training in citizenship, service to the community, an understanding of safety rules, first aid and home-making in its various phases of housework, cooking and child training. These and the other Scout activities such as nature study and handicraft help our girls develop into well rounded young women who have the ability to contribute to the community others providing valuable recreation for the girls themselves.

In spite of a short winter, some of the troops have found their organization and the first report has been submitted. The first meeting of the Girl Scout Troop 4 was held on Tuesday, Sept. 27, in the Wyman School Assembly Hall. The leader was Mrs. Alfred Nelson, and her assistant is Mrs. Alan Hayes. About twelve girls were present. They were selected as follows: Carolyn Padelford, and treasurer, Carolyn Oxford. We divided into patrol 1 and 2. I having Bette Nelson as leader, Joyce Hayes as assistant, and Carolyn Oxford, Carol Green, Mary Howick, Connie Hand, and Susan McMahon as members. In Patrol 1 Lorraine Cullen is leader, Nikki Jones, assistant, and members are: Judith Brannan, Dorothy Elliott, Ruth Marvin and Carolyn Padelford.

Officer Winthrop A. Palmer returned to duty with the Police Department Monday night after serving with the Coast Guard during the war.

Haggerty's 78 Yard Touchdown Run Feature

Sparked by Capt. Jimmy Haggerty's 78 yard touchdown gallop on the first running play of the game, Winchester High beat Watertown High in the first football game between the two schools for 15 years last Saturday afternoon on Manchester Field.

Watertown brought a big rugged team to Winchester and gave the local a hard game. Winchester had a decided edge the first half, Haggerty's sudden touchdown dash apparently upsetting the visitors. The second half Watertown was in the driver's seat, advancing once to Winchester's 19 before Bellino intercepted a pass to end a real scoring threat. Winchester made four first downs and 208 yards, all on the ground, attempted no passes and was not penalized, fumbling twice.

Watertown made six first downs and 104 yards, threw seven passes and completed one for seven yards when the referee rightly ruled pass interference against Winchester. The visitors lost 25 yards in penalties and fumbled once.

Germanian kicked off for Watertown and the crowd had hardly settled back in the stands, after Bellino had run the ball back to his 22 when Winchester sent Capt. Haggerty on a reverse out around Watertown's right end. A couple of good blocks got Jimmy into the clear and the 170 pound wingback legged it for the sidelines, shaking off two tacklers in a mad race that covered 78 long yards and resulted in a touchdown, almost a replica of "Katie" DiMambro's scoring against Watertown two years ago, except that no one even slapped DiMambro and Jimmy had to break away from a couple of tacklers in front of the Watertown bench.

Haggerty also converted with a perfect shot at placement and Winchester led 7-0, enough points as things turned out to have won the game.

ANNIVERSARY WEEK

Looking forward to the 100th anniversary of the First Baptist Church of Winchester in 1952, an Anniversary Committee of 40 members has been created by action of the church at its annual meeting in May of this year. The purpose of this committee is to map and direct a six-year program leading up to the Jubilee year of the Church.

On Anniversary Sunday, in the fall of each year, an outstanding successful pastor of national reputation will preach at the Morning Sanctuary service, hold a conference with the church workers in the afternoon and speak at an evening service to which the churches of all denominations of Winchester and surrounding towns are invited.

This year Anniversary Sunday will be Nov. 4. Dr. William S. Abernethy, former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Washington, D. C., an internationally known preacher and lecturer of exceptional ability, will be the guest preacher. The local churches are joining in the evening service, with the deaconsman participating in the program.

Two events of particular interest will take place during Anniversary Week. On Tuesday, Nov. 6, the Men's Club are presenting Mr. Walter McEnnis of Winchester in a demonstration of glass-blowing. This promises to be a most unusual and interesting program.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 8, the All-Church Harvest Home supper will be held. Dr. Samuel M. Lindsay, well-known to Winchester audiences, will be the speaker. A delicious supper has been planned and the evening program will occupy a prominent place in the Anniversary Week activities.

ALONG THE TRAIL TO MONUMENT VALLEY

Dr. Tozier And Friends Take Outstanding Trip

By request of the National Park Service and the Geological Department of Harvard University, Dr. Charles H. Tozier of this town was privileged to take this summer what was probably the most outstanding trip of the many he has taken in the interest of visual education. Accompanied by his wife, Mr. Frank W. Howard, also of Winchester, and Mr. Alton H. Atwood of Chelsea, he travelled thousands of miles by train, auto, and on foot into one of the little known regions of the great Southwest.

Taking the train to Salt Lake City, the party obtained a car there for the trip. A conference with President Smith of the Mormon Church was an interesting event during our stay in this city.

We drove first to Bryce Canyon, the most colorful canyon in America, and here many photographs were taken in color. From this canyon the party traveled to Zion Canyon and the North Rim of the Grand Canyon. In all three places the Doctor was assisted by Government Rangers and Geologists in obtaining the best views of these National Parks. Leaving the Grand Canyon, the party started on the trail to Monument Valley, located in the only place in the United States where four states come together, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado. Crossing the Painted Desert, a long stop was made in the oldest continually inhabited town in the United States, Old Oraibi, a Hopi Indian village whose history goes back over 1200 years. Many pictures were taken. At another village situated on a high mesa the party was lucky enough to witness the rare snake dance of the Hopi Indians. This is a religious dance, and live rattlesnakes are used, carried in the mouths of the Indians. No pictures are allowed to be taken of this dance.

Leaving the Hopi country we traveled over a so-called road, probably one of the worst in the country, through canyons that twist like a snake, up mountain trails so steep that you had to go up and push even on low, and so narrow that it would be impossible for any two vehicles to pass. We did not meet anybody, so I can't tell what might have happened. Some washouts were ailed before going over, and only once did we have to call on the Indians to pull us out. Finally after a very strenuous trip we reached the desert and the Indian Trading Post at Monument Valley. The wonders and beauties of this place are almost impossible to describe. From sunrise in the early morning until sunset over the desert the cameras were busy, trying to record the marvelous beauties of nature that were all around us. It is a place where one can find the something that every man in his own soul is consciously or unconsciously searching for, himself.

NAMED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN

The Winchester League of Women Voters has just received word that Miss Anna Lord Strauss, president of the National League of Women Voters, has named by President Truman as a member of the United States Delegation to the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization conference which opens in Quebec Oct. 16.

Miss Strauss, will serve as an adviser to the Secretary of Agriculture, Clinton B. Anderson, the U. S. member of the Food and Agriculture Organization. In that capacity she will bring to the conference the experience she has gained as head of a nation-wide organization concerned with the food-finding and participation in the solution of government problems. The activity of the Winchester League has contributed to that experience.

When Secretary Anderson and his advisers, including Miss Strauss, meet in Quebec with representatives of the 26 other countries they will attempt in their joint study to answer the question, "How can the FAO, concerned with the production, distribution and consumption of food, best contribute to the welfare of producers and consumers?"

Mrs. Henry Magruder of the local League said this week she believed the background of the League of Women Voters will enable Miss Strauss to be a valuable member of the delegation.

WE STILL LIKE THE KELLAWAY PLAN

To the Editor of the Star, Oct. 9, 1945.
Your editorial in the Oct. 5th edition of the Star on eliminating the grade-crossing is timely and I am pleased to note that you feel that so far nothing has been suggested to the citizens of the Town that pleases you as well as the Kellaway Plan. The purchase of the Skillings property by the Town makes it even more economical than when it was suggested before.

If there is anything better in sight, why not let us know what it is?

Sincerely yours,

WINCHESTER FAULTS

To the Editor of the Star.
This letter is a plea for a "better" Manners Campaign in Winchester. There are, to be sure, many other campaigns claiming our energies, attentions, and moneys. But, certainly, nothing which pays greater dividends with no financial investment, than courtesy and consideration for our fellow-townspersons.

Before coming to this fair town we have lived in other communities, large and small. However, for sheer rudeness and indifference to the little needs of human behavior, I think Winchester tops the list.

To be specific.
Our first attendance at the local motion picture house was marked by loud guffaws, hoots and a continual running commentary on the film being screened, by the younger generation present. These were not children exclusively of grammar school age, but in the majority, high school boys and girls. There was evidently no attempt to cure their lusty spirits.

Winchester prides itself, rightly I think, on being a "social" town. But most certainly it is far from being a "socialized" community. There are, to be sure, many teas and gatherings of the sort, innumerable organizations, etc.

During the early part of our stay here, we heard rumors of the various school groups for parents. Despite the fact that our small fry were registered in school, no notice of any of these meetings was received. Finally, through a notice in your very up-to-date and alert paper, we were delighted to learn of an afternoon meeting of the school mothers' group.

My arrival caused no change in the tightly grouped members present. There was no attempt by the president or any of the officers to learn my name or to welcome me to the meeting. The whole affair seemed to be conducted on the "old school tie" basis—this in a public school supported by public funds! The refreshment period which followed would have been merely a continuation of this policy, had it not been for the presence of many of the teachers. They, in any event, were well-mannered enough to welcome the stranger in their midst, may their tribe increase!

Surely in no other town in this country, could a group, supposed to be presenting the school of the town decide arbitrarily to withhold the names of the young people to whom Association memberships are granted. This is not strictly a problem of manners, but surely a high-handed method of dealing with information of interest to the public. These schoolships, do they not, come from funds which the townspeople have contributed through the purchase of tickets, etc.? There are other incidents too numerous to mention, in the execution of this out-standing example. After our experiences at the local theater, and others of a like nature, we were very critical of the young people of this community. However, let me say here and now, that this criticism should rest where it belongs—on their parents.

No better illustration could be given than a typical gathering of local women. There, after the inevitable over-elaborate refreshments, we find them rushing about, carrying favor with those who have more than they, ignoring those who have less. It seems to be the thing to do to dash off and leave a person whom you have invited to attend this particular affair, without even a murmured excuse. And let me add, it is a terrifying experience, perhaps not appreciated by the stronger sex, to be left the target of critical, unfriendly eyes and tongues! The ease of friendship even acquaintance, in Winchester seems to be what you are—but what you have! Something, also, on the order of peck' among hens!

No doubt, dear Editor, you think me harsh, but when time and again, a person whom you think you know well, have talked with many times, looks through and around you when you meet on the street, well, it seems to be a good old Winchester custom. I think it high time customs and manners in Winchester improved for the better.

Since I hope to live a little longer in Winchester, or else, where I will not such my name, although I abhor anonymous letters myself, but I do hope you will publish at least part of it.

O tempora, O mores!

GLORIOUS OCTOBER

The deep, quiet days are coming, the dreamful golden tinted days of thoughtful autumn when the wayside paths are strewn with fallen leaves that inquisitive children love to scuff through on their way to school. A crisp rustle betrays the scurrying squirrel by the old stone wall. In the great woods the star and bull moose become restless through their mate-seeking instinct, the drumming partridge, the assembling birds before their southern migration, crows in noisy convention, the besting blue jays, raucous beauties; the garnered corn in the farm yard, the shortening days and the evening mists shrouding the winding streams and meadows portend the passing of summer, the harvest season and the empty air when the birds are gone.

When fall comes and crickets sing through the lengthening hours of cooler nights, when meadow mists veer lowlands and valleys and the first hoar frost turns dewy grass to crispness some stilly, moonlit night, then the master artist, with magic hand, begins the transformation of the rolling countryside, making a superb spectacle of the vast panorama of resplendent hues. With the passing of this symphony, nature's vesper of fall, as mystically and silently as the phantoms of the night vanish at the coming of dawn, unseen hands softly scatter autumn leaves to mantle the embracing earth, protecting the myriads sleeping things till winter comes to spread her snowy sheets over all abiding there. Dormant but vital, silent and unseen but living, they rest until spring removes the protecting covers. Their countless blossoms, in transcendent resurrection, uplift their smiling faces to greet the vernal sun, transforming the dull brown fields into a varicolored, floral paradise of living, radiant beauty. He who witnesses the autumn panorama at its best may well exclaim, my eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord!

The New England miracle of October is God's perfect benediction, concluding a matchless sermon without words, a message revealed by the inspiring artistry of His sublime creations.

HIGH PRAISE FOR FIREMEN

The following letter received by the Firemen is reproduced with the permission of the Firemen of the town who find it both interesting and reassuring.

Mystic Steamship Division
Lewis Wharf, Boston, 10
Oct. 5, 1945
Chairman, Board of Selectmen, Winchester, Mass.

Dear Sir:

I cannot adequately express in words my gratitude and respect for the Winchester Fire Department.

As you know, we had a severe fire last Sunday afternoon at my home at 49 Wolcott avenue. Due to the promptness and efficiency of our Fire Department the blaze was restricted to the attic and was extinguished in time to save the roof from caving in.

It is beyond my understanding how they extinguished so extensive a fire with so little water and chemical, as judged from the damage in the lower floors. Furthermore, in their thoughtfulness and prompt action, my furniture and personal possessions in the rest of the house were beautifully protected resulting in only comparatively slight damage. My insurance adjusters have expressed quite openly their high commendation of the efficiency of our Fire Department.

I must add my respect and praise for the auxiliary firemen who gave so generously of their time and who were remarkably efficient and effective in all they did. I am enclosing herewith my check in favor of the Winchester Firemen's Relief Association hoping that it will, through that means help to repay for services so well done.

Very sincerely yours,
F. B. Craver,
Manager Marine Department

"Space does not permit me to mention by name all those to whom I would like to say 'thank you' for the work each one did to bring the 1946 campaign to a successful conclusion. To all who worked on this campaign, in behalf of the USO, other War Fund Agencies, the 288 Red Feather services in Greater Boston, including seven agencies visible here in Winchester, I would like to express my sincere and humble thanks for a job well done."

LOCAL S. S. BOARD OFFICIAL INFORMATION CENTER

Designation of the local Selective Service Board No. 101, located in the basement of the Town Hall, as an official Veterans' Information Center of the U. S. Government was announced last week.

The Veterans' Information Center has been officially named by the Retraining and Reemployment Administration which is charged by law with the coordination of U. S. Government agencies serving veterans. The board's location as a Veterans' Information Center is identified by a colorful poster bearing a large reproduction of the gold discharge emblem.

The local board has inducted a large number of men into the armed forces during the last five years and now is ready to assist these same men in re-establishing themselves in civilian life if they want and need assistance. Congress has provided many rights, privileges, and benefits for ex-servicemen and women. These rights and benefits are provided by many different laws and are administered by a number of different Government agencies. It is the purpose of our Veterans' Information Center to aid the veteran in getting to the right place and obtaining the right information so that he may take advantage of all benefits to which he is entitled.

It was pointed out that persons who left positions to enter the armed forces are entitled by law to reinstatement in their old jobs when they return, if they fulfill certain requirements of the law. It is part of the local board functions to assist the veteran in asserting his reemployment rights. The local board, also charged by law with rendering aid to veterans seeking new employment, will render all possible aid to this end. Many veterans, of course, will not need assistance for industry and business in general already have seen to it that their former employees in service are welcomed back to their old jobs—or better ones. But a large number of veterans are not familiar with their rights to reemployment and what they are entitled to in the way of preference for new jobs. Full information is available at the local board and the veteran is urged to go to the local board's Veterans' Information Center and talk over his problems.

The board also will advise and assist the veteran by referring him to the proper agencies for securing G. I. loans and arranging for insurance, conversion, educational opportunities and the like. All these services are free to the veteran for the asking and he will find the board's members, Reemployment Committeemen, and employees ready to do the utmost to save him time and trouble in getting back in stride as a civilian.

EN KA

En Ka opened its fall activities on Tuesday, Sept. 25 with a lobster luncheon given to the board by its president, Mr. Percy Bugbee.

On Monday, Oct. 8, Mrs. George Marks opened her home on Bacon street for a board meeting at which detailed plans for the coming year were discussed.

En Ka boasts of over 100 active members who have wholeheartedly supported charitable and civic work in Winchester. They have generously donated over a period of years to the Winchester Hospital, the Home for the Aged and the District Nurse. Keeping abreast of the times the Red Cross, the United War Fund and the Veterans Room at the Public Library all became recipients of En Ka's good-will. Whenever there has been a need this active group has responded.

The "What-Not-Shop" has proved itself. It was continuing to be opened three days a week, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, to serve the public. The proceeds from this shop give double service.

The summer months under the leadership of Mrs. Wilfred McKenzie have proved very successful. It is hoped civic minded citizens will continue to patronize the unique shop.

The annual Street Fair, which was discontinued during the war will again function in 1946.

The first general meeting of the Society will be held on Oct. 16 at the home of Miss Mildred Stone on Cambridge street.

CHILDREN'S HOBBY CENTER

Saturday, Oct. 6, marked the opening of the Children's Hobby Center at Fortnightly Hall, Egan street. May as a non-profit making community organization under the sponsorship of a small group of Winchester mothers, the Hobby Center has had a most successful summer season. The Center has been most fortunate in securing competent teachers and instructors, well known in their fields, who have shown great interest in their pupils.

Among these are Miss Josephine Durrell of Melrose who gave a course in Finger Painting, and one in Musicianship; Mrs. J. Albert Wood, Winchester, a course in Rhythms; and Mrs. Edward Simpson of Winchester, a course in Nature Studies.

Originally limited to children aged 5 to 10, the fall program will be open to boys and girls between the ages of 5½ through 12. These weekly programs will consist of varied educational talks and movies, exhibits, excursions for small groups and entertainments, held each Saturday morning from 9 to 12, from Oct. 6 through January. Children's admission is 25 cents. Parents are welcome. (The Center will be closed the holiday week-end of Oct. 13).

The fall season started Oct. 6 with "Hobby Day" at the Center. Mrs. Edwin F. Tarbox, a well known hobby collector here and Junior Chairman of the National Button Society, talked on "Hobbies for Children." She also exhibited many projects that boys and girls have made with buttons. Mr. Dale Burrows, a student at Harvard University entertained the children with his hobby-magic!

The Children's Museum has loaned the Center a collection of butterflies and there will be on view an exhibit of butterflies collected and mounted by local children. A loan exhibit of dolls will also be on display, together with many interesting finger paintings done at the Center.

The special interests groups which were held during the spring and summer months, consisting of courses in finger painting, musicianship, rhythms and nature studies, will be continued to include courses in clay modeling, soap carving, weaving, leather work, puppetry, French for young children and courses for older boys in model airplane, boat, and train construction. These courses will be available soon. Classes will be restricted to small groups. Craft teachers and others interested in working with children are asked to join the Children's Hobby Center committee, in planning these additional courses. This committee comprises Mrs. Dwight Bellows, chairman; Mrs. George L. Connor, business manager; Miss Dorothy Gove, supervisor; Mrs. Richard C. Ashenden, Jr., Mrs. J. Albert Wood, Mrs. Frances Gray, Mrs. W. Campbell Ross, Mrs. John Willis, Mrs. George Marks, Mrs. Edward Simpson, Mrs. Paul Lamb, Mrs. Leon Leavitt, Mrs. Clarence Blake, Mrs. E. Frisoe, Mrs. Frederick Withington, Mrs. Franklin McDermott, and Miss Margaret Miles. Miss Corinne Meade and Miss Ida Johnston will act in an advisory capacity.

The movement for children's centers has been gathering impetus in recent years as a community activity. One of the most successful projects of this kind is the children's community center in Palo Alto, Cal. Bostonians are already familiar with the large scope activities in connection with the Children's Museum in Jamaica Plain, as well as with the Children's Tributary Theater and many Winchester parents have registered this year at the Adult Center of Education in Cambridge.

Winchester is off to an auspicious start and the ultimate success of the "Children's Hobby Center" will be dependent, in a large measure, upon the support and active co-operation of the parents, who realize that "a child with a hobby is never a lonesome child."

WINCHESTER COLLEGE CLUB

The fall meeting of the College Club will be held in the Parish Hall of the Church of the Epiphany on Friday evening, Oct. 19 at 8 o'clock.

Mr. John E. Burchard, Director of Libraries at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will be the guest speaker. Mr. Burchard and his family are well known in Winchester, having lived here on Salisbury road until five years ago when he was called to Washington to become associated with the Office of Scientific Research and development. For this office he has visited west of the theatres of war and he has just recently returned from a survey in Germany. His topic will be, "Can We Effectively Control Germany's Scientific Ability?" This is a question everyone has asked himself and Mr. Burchard is in a position to make an answer.

Coffee will be served at 7:30 by Mrs. Norman Padeford and her committee with the Smith group in the College Club as hostesses. Members are reminded that guests are most cordially invited to this opening meeting of the year.

MRS. ATKIN NMAS SEAL
CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Alexander Atkin of Yale street is a member of the Christmas Seal Committee of the Middlesex Health Association, the members of which will direct the 1945 sale of Christmas seals on a county basis benefitting a progressive program of tuberculosis prevention and control.

The speaker of the meeting was Judge Emma F. L. Schofield, whose subject was, "Chins up and Shine Inside." Her message was very inspiring and most interesting.

The president announced that the annual bazaar and fashion show will be held at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 4 and 5. Mrs. Don Greer and her able committee served a very delicious tea; the table attractively decorated with a beautiful centerpiece of fuchsia, yellow gladioli and carnations. The pourers were Mrs. Kenneth B. Hise and Mrs. Langley C. Keyes.

The grinder that ground out a thousand jobs...

A THOUSAND JOBS" is putting it mildly. And all because a middle-aged man, named C. W. Post, had an idea... an idea that called for the use of a second-hand coffee grinder, a discarded gasoline stove, an old white barn, and a borrowed $800—which he lost in the first year of the venture.

Out of the idea came Postum, the mealtime drink which Post peddled from horse and buggy, from store to store... the drink that grew from a business providing jobs for a few, to the great American mealtime drink that provides security for thousands.

Yes! Postum prospered! And, in prospering, created jobs where no jobs had ever existed before... work for farmers who produced more grain; work for railroads that hauled it; jobs for factory workers, work for wholesale and retail grocers.

These jobs provided pay and purchasing power, and helped create the prosperity that provided America with the highest standard of living that the world has ever known.

Everyone agrees that America's most pressing problem today is the making of steady, continuous employment for all who want to work.

These jobs can be provided if we encourage today's C. W. Posts to put their ideas into practice... ideas that range all the way from building neighborhood businesses to expanding today's great industries... ideas for better products, for more products, for new products.

This is the way most Americans want their jobs to be made, through initiative and enterprise. But real success will depend on the rules and regulations under which business must operate. If these regulations result in the stifling of initiative, the discouragement of enterprise and the penalizing of its rewards... the alternative would probably be Government relief projects to make up the jobs, perhaps including even your job.

How many jobs business can make, and how quickly it can make them, depends partly on you. For you, through your opinions and your representatives, help make the rules and regulations under which business must operate.

Remember this... and whenever you're making up your mind about questions which affect business, ask yourself: "Will this measure result in making more jobs the way Americans want their jobs made?"

In your answer may rest the future of your job, and the future of your country.

SEES PEOPLE OF EUROPE
TOGETHER

Speaking to the regular Sunday morning gathering of the Young People's Fellowship of the Church of the Epiphany, Dr. Herbert Gezok, well-known traveler, lecturer, and teacher, stressed the fact that the great mass of people resident on the continent of Europe see the need for removing state barriers and getting together in a strong central government. One of the forces tending toward a union of the European states is that of the resistance groups who have fought totalitarianism in all its forms.

Dr. Gezok said that Germany faces the problem of starvation for millions because of the destruction of foodstuffs during the war. Second as a cause of fear the great dread of some of the people is that of another form of totalitarianism, a government which simply uses the individual and destroys him when he no longer can aid the state. As evidence of the latter, Dr. Gezok told of the Nazi policy of putting to death all who were unable to care for themselves, including veterans of the first and second world wars who had suffered serious head injuries.

Pointing out the seriousness of the disillusionment of youth as a result of the fall of the Nazis, he said that they are living in a spiritual vacuum, and that the Christian Church must care for those who fear the demons of the future.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Sheekels, Director of Christian Education and Young People's Work of Massachusetts, will be with the First Baptist Church during its entire day's program (Christian Education Sunday, Oct. 14, addressing the Youth Fellowship Forum at 9:30 on the subject, "Youth of Christ for the Church of Christ." At the morning service Dr. Sheekels will preach on, "But Jesus Also Came Teaching."

There will be a conference of the Church School officers and teachers, the Committee on Christian Education, including the sub-committee, and the Executive Committee of the Church, at 3 o'clock in the church parlor. At 5 o'clock Dr. Sheekels will speak to the Junior High Fellowship group following which refreshments will be served to both the Senior and Junior High organizations, preceding Dr. Sheekels' meeting with the Senior Fellowship at 6:45 o'clock.

Many of our homes are being gladdened by the return of the boys who left many months ago to fight for these same homes which now welcome them, some homes have assumed the role of temporary hospitals where those ary hospitals where those who were disabled in the conflict may receive the tender care of loved ones to help bring them back to health and vigor, and, alas, too many others are saddened by the realization that their heroes have made the supreme sacrifice and will nev-return. Whichever experience has been the lot of those who have maintained these homes, while prayerfully watching and waiting, it has been a great satisfaction to know that whether in health, sickness or disaster the Red Cross has been watching over them, administering to their needs, adding to their comfort and providing entertainment and recreation for their leisure hours, and most of all they glory in the fact that they have been able to help support the only organization which could accomplish so much in such an efficient manner for those so dear to them.

SUPT. NORRIS TALKED ON SCHOOLS

Forbes Norris was the speaker at the Unitarian Church Men's Club last Monday evening before some 50 members and guests. He talked on the Winchester school system and his thought is as to certain of its deficiencies and its needs for development. He stated that the caliber of both the teachers and the pupils in Winchester was very high, and he accordingly felt that both the teachers and the physical equipment of the schools should be of such nature as to take full advantage of this circumstance. In this connection he felt strongly that a salary schedule should be established which would compensate the teachers more than at the present. He pointed out that teachers were leaving Winchester for neighboring towns because they were able to obtain higher pay.

He indicated that the present high school building was not adequate for its purposes and that it could not be improved sufficiently to fill the necessary requirements. He advocated the building of a new high school which would take care of at least the next 25 or 30 years of Winchester's development.

He also pointed out that the new devices for teaching are being developed. This has been brought to light by the army in a drastic manner. The use of visual methods for teaching rather than text books has resulted in the student acquiring knowledge much more quickly and thoroughly than heretofore through the use of the customary text book system.

He also stated that as the school system concerned itself with more and more phases of a child's life, the length of the school day would increase and become a good deal more varied and interesting. He pointed out that there was a great need of shop training in the industrial arts, and that such training would allow the hand-minded students to progress.

He thought that there should be a better equipment in the teaching of science, that the present laboratories were very inadequate; also that there should be a better program of physical education.

Mr. Norris by his talk not only indicated his deep understanding of the Winchester school problems but also proved himself to be both an entertaining and a valuable speaker.

DISTRICT DEPUTY VISITED WINCHESTER ELKS

Local Elks turned out in large numbers Tuesday evening for the official visitation of Duncan McLaughlin, past exalted ruler of Natick Lodge 125, and district deputy of Mass. Central. The visitation was held in the lodge hall in Lyceum Building.

Accompanying the district deputy were P. E. R. R. Foley of Natick Lodge, acting as grand exalted and Arthur Denny, secretary of Natick Lodge, acting as grand secretary. There was also a suite of prominent Elks, including Peter G. Leger of Medford Lodge, past district deputy of Mass. Northeast and Mass. Central; Fred H. Scholl, P. E. R. of Winchester; past district deputy of Mass. Central; Fred T. Strachan of Winthrop Lodge, past district deputy of Mass. Southeast and John A. O'Brien, past exalted ruler of Cambridge Lodge.

During the visitation District Deputy McLaughlin and his grand officers were presented with suitable mementoes, refreshments were served by the board of stewards and music was furnished by Strachan's Elks Orchestra. The 11 o'clock toast, always a feature of Elks gatherings, was delivered by P. E. R. John E. Donaghey.

"CAN THE NATIONS UNITE FOR PEACE"

Subject of Dr. Padelford's Address

Masonic Hall was filled to capacity last Wednesday afternoon, when members of the Winchester Women's Republican Club and their friends gathered to hear Dr. Norman J. Padelford, recently returned from the Council of Foreign Ministers at London, which he had attended as special adviser to Secretary of State, James F. Byrnes.

Mrs. Marshall R. Phil, President, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Georges L. Houle, chairman of the education committee, introduced the speaker, who is Professor of International Relations at M. I. T. and well known to Winchester audiences.

Choosing as his subject, "Can the Nations Unite for Peace", Dr. Padelford said that we stand today between two worlds, a world of co-operation and understanding under the United Nations Charter, and a world of strife, conflict and destruction of civilization under atomic bombs. Which way we move will be decided within the course of the coming months.

In answer to a question from the floor as to when another conference would be held, Dr. Padelford said that no provision had been made for the convening of another conference at any particular moment, but he thinks we are likely to see another within a few months. He added that the Russians, and also the other nations, are as anxious as we are to maintain the spirit that was developed at San Francisco, and that, after all, if there was a will to co-operate and unite for peace, a way could be found sooner or later.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Alfred W. Drew and her committee.

NOTICE

It has come to the attention of the Star that certain persons are soliciting advertising for "The Winchester paper." These solicitors have no connection whatever with the Star. The Star is the only paper printed in Winchester. It has no local solicitors, as Winchester merchants and residents know its worth and advertise accordingly. Its outside advertising is handled by reputable firms. Merchants and others are warned that if they are approached by an advertising solicitor, they should ascertain whether this advertising is for the Winchester Star. The Star prints 3100 copies weekly and has covered the town since its origin 65 years ago.

Apparently the powers that have given up on the shore road athletic field as yet, for trucks are hauling fill there. An expert whom the School Committee had look over the field says that the surface can be put in shape for use as an athletic field. In the mean time the high school has several big crowd games coming up which are sure to be handled handsomely on makeshift conditions on Manchester Field. People who follow the high school eleven out of town come home weekly ashamed of the outdoor organization and facilities obtaining in Winchester.

WINCHESTER NOT SO BAD

To the Editor of the Star
We who are privileged to live in Winchester are very proud of our town at all times, yet never more so than at this present hour, when Winchester again was the first town in the great Metropolitan area to send in its return report on the Greater Boston United War Fund drive, and to Go Over the Top in its efforts to raise $50,000. Last week the Boston Post gave Winchester an editorial commendation of its citizens on their efforts and success in this Victory Drive.

Raising $50,000 here was not an easy task. To so many people the war was over, and the war needs were minimized. It was up to the volunteer workers to put across that slogan "Now Is the Time" to bring home to each one of the many calls on every one to do his bit. And the workers did, even though the sum which had to be raised here was a very large one.

We who meet in the markets, on the train, in church, at business—who are wearing our red feather emblem—are very, very proud of our town and its people. Because, in spite of the many calls on every one to do his bit, we did go well over the top this year, again, in contributing our share of the Victory Fund campaign.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. George E. Connor

WRITING IN AGREEMENT

To the Editor of the Star
Please print the following if you see fit. I have wanted to write this for some time and as yours is an organization that prints the truth, I feel I am writing to the right people. I am writing this in agreement with the letter printed in last week's Star by a person who wrote the article, "Winchester Faults."

I am so glad that someone has spunk enough to speak up and admit the truth about this town. I have lived here off and on for 25 years, and I have never seen a lack of community spirit, and all round bad manners in my life. There are no social activities for the young people and when there are any if your child is a new arrival you find she stands in the background. Children refuse to go to school and finish their education because they are made fun of and put in a class of their own because their people can not afford new dresses each week. This terrible unkindness is not the fault of the children but the fault of those who bring them up. There are certain clothes who run everything and who look down their nose at other people who pay the same taxes. I am writing this because I have had the same experiences as the person who wrote the article.

A while ago I was asked to give my time for collecting funds for a certain organization in the town. When I arrived at the first meeting of this organization I was not greeted by one person; all other people were all talking around me to people in their own clique. I work for a living but I consider myself as good as anyone in this town, thank heavens my parents brought me up with some manners. I just want the writer of "Winchester Faults" to know that it is not only the new-comers to this town that feel the coldness and unfriendliness. Some of us older residents also feel and think it is high time that the feeling of the other side of the tracks was done away with in our schools, churches, etc. I am a young person and I am speaking of what I see and I want to make friends in this town.

This is a town with many prejudices. I have seen it when you go shopping. If you look as though you have more money than the other fellow you get waited on immediately, but if you are poorly dressed and look as if you work for a living you are not waited on at all. Come to Winchester, wake up. There are other places in this state not far away that could give you a few lessons in community spirit. I am with O Tempora, O Mores! 100 per cent.

XXX

PERHAPS ITS FIFTY-FIFTY

To the Editor of the Star
In answer to O Tempora O Mores' Thanks to the Winchester Star for printing her letter. It is an old old grievance heard many times here in Winchester. The only solution lies in the question "When is a new-mover no longer a new-mover?" If she lives here long enough will O Tempora O Mores put herself out to be friendly to the ones who come later than she? Many of the folks who live on the "make" and will respond to no overtures made by the old members of the school organizations. I can speak only of Mystic School section but it has been my experience to ascertain names of new mothers and make special invitations to them for all school affairs. Contact mothers for each grade send notice to all mothers and pupils. Slips have been made of course, and some guests are not recognized when they do arrive. This is the old host. The trouble is that many of the meetings are made up predominantly of other new people who do not know each other any better than you do.

O Tempora O Mores must have been at the War Fund drive she would have cited that as an example of the flagrant bad manners of the youngsters. My sympathy was with the folks who tried so hard to put on a fine program in the face of hoots from the hoodlums.

Empty stares that meet you in the Winchester shopping section are often caused by the present difficulties of getting waited on. That doesn't excuse some of the "high hats" it does seem fair to explain what is going on. I have even people one loves disown a morning schedule of some dozen errands to do before children come home for a visit.

I'm all in favor of more friendliness and more reciprocity at the same.

Sincerely yours,
Newcomer No Longer

TAXI FARES

To the Editor of the Star
For some time past the matter of taxi fares in this town has given me a headache. I have considered the matter. Why, as the name of common sense, are they not based, as most rates are, and as are the taxi rates in Boston on the amount of service rendered? The taxi rates in Boston are a fearful significance of "crossing the tracks." If, for the sake of argument, I wish to go from Hovick's Drug Store to the National Bank, must I pay the same rate as I pay 50¢ because of the fact that a track intervenes?

The one fact I have been able to pin down is that the old-time taxi rates still maintain a sane ratio. Winchester railroad station (withn), I assume, a reasonable distance. Then why not, pray, to Wedgewood? For instance, I live near the Wedgewood Station than the Winchester one, but I have recently discovered that it costs me 50¢ to taxi there as against 25¢ to Winchester. Why?

If the special rate to a railroad station is an attempt to favor an essential activity which affects a large group of people, why, pray, cannot the same courtesy be extended to the taxi driver who has to travel from church amounts to over $50 yearly, and tends to make church-going prohibitive to a group of citizens who are neither financially able to walk nor financially able to pay for transportation an amount equal to or exceeding their annual contribution to the Church itself. Is this either right or desirable from the community standpoint?

If the present system of charging for taxi service—whatever it is—boils down to a minimum at all times, then why is it that a new whatever, with the sole exception of the Winchester railroad station, then why cannot we be told so in so many words? And why, then, what is this "train-crossing" complication that seems to enter into every attempted explanation of the new rates on the part of drivers?

I feel the public is entitled to a clear and complete statement of just how much they have to pay, and I'm sure the taxi drivers can do the town a distinct service by printing such a schedule in the Star.

Winchester Resident
P. S. Of course, this all pertains to the discussion of single fares, as for two- or three-people going to the same destination the charge—I understand—remains the same, as it does in Boston.

WANTS TRACKS DEPRESSED

To the Editor of the Star

Oct. 15, 1945
In a letter to the Star about a year ago, the writer pointed out that the depression of the railroad tracks through the center of our town was the chief feature of any plan to eliminate the grade crossing and beautify our civic center.

There is no other way to eliminate the dust and noise of fast through trains. To lower them to the right of way is neither too difficult nor too costly. The question of water seepage can be overcome as demonstrated by many such subways and underpasses now in use.

The Kellaway Plan and many of the other layouts for solving this Winchester problem, propose to leave the tracks right where they are and thus the ugliness, noise and dirt will still be with us. Do we really want that? And do we want to pay for a plan like that? At least, if we are to spend let us get value for our money.

The trend in railroad practice is distinctly away from smoke-belching locomotives and towards clean, or ways of pulling trains. So much so that the day is not far off when trains can be sent through a subway as there will be no smoke fumes to get rid of. This means that the L. and M. tracks, if depressed, could be routed over where they pass through our civic center. The area thus gained would be used by commuters for parking their cars while in Boston. As a minimum, this would give a parking area immediately to the rear of all shops on the west side of Thompson street and close to the railroad station itself. It would provide for four lines of parked cars the entire north-to-south length of Common street. It would eliminate the overhead foot bridge.

This new parking area would be many of our stores. Diagonal parking or all parking on Thompson street could be done away with, if so desired, to help the traffic condition on Main street. The unsightly rear view of Thompson street shops could be greatly improved. Pedestrians would not have to use subways or bridges to get from one side of the tracks to the other. People using the trains would be much more under cover than now, and who knows? We might get a new waiting room.

This new parking area would be an unrelieved surface of glare and white lines. Both it and a new traffic circle, using the present brick tower as a hub, should be properly landscaped. My sympathy is with the folks who try to get a plan in town to do this.

Even if the Town had to pay a generous share for such an improvement as outlined here, there would be a saving in the long run with plans calling for large land takings and radical rearrangement of streets and property lines.

As each taxpayer will bear his share in such a project, it seems only right that all suggestions be heard by the Selectmen, who do not wish to be charged with arbitrary action.

Respectfully,
I Wolcott terrace,
Winchester

INDICTMENT OF TOWN MAN- NERS NEEDS ATTENTION

To the Editor of the Star
The shocking indictment of the good manners of Winchester residents appearing in your paper over the signature "O Tempora O Mores" demands the attention of every citizen and of every individual in this town in order to prevent each gold star and each purple heart, acquired in this war at such a ghastly price, from being a blot on the town's north. It would appear to be monumentally stupid to send our finest men to the corners of the earth to fight fascist ideologies and at the same time to perpetuate them here.

The criticism of the school mothers' group, at least the one where we attend, is entirely justified. There is no question but that it is entirely in admitting it. We have observed this with a sickening heart, for certainly the public school is the cornerstone of our democracy and it is our moral obligation to see that this cornerstone extends to every group connected with it.

We respectfully recommend that the spiritual heads of the various parishes arouse their members to a truer sense of moral values and to draw them away from the materialism with which but a few seem to be infected. Surely in this era of atom fission, material things, even to the most unwary, cannot seem too important.

We suggest that organizations throughout the community note these charges well and make renewed efforts to see that all of their members at all times are welcomed cordially and treated with kindness. We hereby serve notice on the tea committees in the few organizations with which we are connected, that we shall constitute ourselves a committee, without benefit of badges, should the need arise—to make someone feel a part of the group.

Individually, should resolve to be friendly wherever we are to whomsoever we see. It seems inconceivable that people who have been so generous with the donation of their very blood could part so reluctantly with a drop of the milk of human kindness. It really is a more simple procedure.

We, of course, can speak only in a subjective way from our own experience, but we have been most happy in our Winchester relationships. Members of this community of every stratum and of every creed have been so very kind to us and are so very good. We have tested them and know whereof we speak. The very finest people who dwell upon this much battered globe reside in Winchester. Maybe there are others but we have been most fortunate in not knowing the wrong people.

Now for happier things. We have meant to tell you, dear editor, how very much we enjoyed the write-up of your daughter's wedding. It is a little classic.

After getting Winchester manners in good order again, perhaps the most burning topic, locally speaking, relates to the identity of "old doc horse sense." Could it be he or some other? Benedit, your esteemed assistant editor?

What—no potshots at the Rooseveltian Dynasty these days? We mean them the pot shots, we mean.

Sincerely,
Lin and Mary Witham
75 Bacon Street

THERE SHOULD BE NO FAVORED CLASS

To the Editor of the Star
A severe, quiet stamp, New Deal Congress, directed and abetted by the New Deal chief enacted legislation making organized labor a favored class exempt from laws that govern the majority of the people. This made a small group autocratic dictator instead of vesting the dictatorship in one man, the result being the same in Germany. The German slowly awakening from its lethargy, found democracy and the Constitution scrapped, autocracy enthroned and James Pettillo, the American Mussolini and John L. Lewis telling the people what they must and must not do. The New Deal is dead but the evil it created lives after it.

Now the C. I. O. is urging the people along the same road taken by French labor before the war—the sit down strike, short work, short day, all-for-us trail that make France an easy victim for Germany, broke her pride and spirit and left her at the mercy of the forces of evil. Hard work, intelligence, thrift and integrity, attributes necessary for personal success are also essential for national prosperity. There is no easy or short cut to this goal.

While the C. I. O. is leading to wards communism, the Russian communists today are bent on adopting some of the principles of capitalism, a system in which the ownership of land and natural wealth, the production, distribution and exchange of goods and the operation of the system itself are effected by private enterprise and control under competitive conditions. This system has done more for all the people, poor and rich alike, than any other. It made our nation what she is today—first in all the world. It encourages industry and enterprise and makes it possible for the poorest of the poor to rise to the very top unrestrained by fanciful labor rules, if his ability entitles him to that position.

A distinctive service always attended by a capable staff to serve your best interests.

Lewis were made masters over Congress and the courts when the New Deal created by legislation a favored class. Tribute is exacted from the enslaved populace. A few years ago when the steel workers demanded and received increased wages the price of automobiles was immediately marked up from 25 to 240 dollars a car. When Ross Lewis got a raise for the coal miners the price of coal was increased a dollar a ton. Thus the cost is passed on to the impoverished majority who get no increase in wages.

There should be no favored class. We should have a Government of the people, by the people, for all the people—not for a small, favored class. It should protect and guarantee all the right to work in time of peace for anybody, anywhere, anytime, unmolested and without tribute to any party or union.

There is no such thing as peaceful picketing. It is intimidation and blackmail. It should be outlawed. Labor unions should be governed by and comply with the same laws that regulate corporations and the people at large.

As long as labor leaders have the power and act the role of dictators, as long as the Government makes laws creating a favored minority and enforces and exact tribute from a less favored majority—allows pickets, sometimes hoodlums, to prevent willing labor from lawful employment in their accustomed shops, as long as Congressmen are too cowardly to vote for justice and the repeal of laws that create dictators lest they fail of reelection, as long as selfish legislators put our personal welfare and that of friends above the welfare of the nation, as long as the spirit of Nathan Hale fails to inspire, mores and laws will make the eighth prosperity of the country rests upon a foundation of shifting sand.

If the people want a just and impartial Government, they must be replaced by men who think of their country's welfare first, of equal rights and justice for all.

Very truly yours,
Daniel C. Bennett, M. D.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD REACHES 60TH MILEPOST

The Needlework Guild of America is observing its 60th anniversary. It was brought to this country from England, and the pioneer group of seven young girls in Philadelphia little dreamed that the idea would grow and spread to every state in the union. The high mark of 650 branches, including a million members has been reached. This means that two million useful articles of clothing and household linen each year are collected and distributed through many agencies to those most in need. It is the only organization affiliated with the National Red Cross.

The Winchester Branch is reaching its 36th birthday and year by year all the social-service workers in the community find encouragement and help in supplying the many needs arising in these trying times. This year the Home Service Department of the Red Cross will have many demands for families of service men in the period of re-adjustment.

All garments are collected and are on exhibition at the annual meeting, before distribution. This year the Unitarian Church extends its hospitality to the Guild. In Metcalf Hall at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesday, Oct. 31 you will be welcome, whether you are a director, a contributing member, a social-service worker, or a friendly person who wishes to know more about the Guild.

All new and old children are in the ranks, and more helpers are needed to keep Winchester's branch strong and growing. For particulars call the president, Mrs. Robert Armstrong, Curtis circle.

WINCHESTER EDUCATOR ADDRESSED NURSES

Dr. George K. Makechnie of Chesterford terrace, newly appointed dean at Boston University college of physical education for women, Sargent, was the speaker last evening at the graduation exercises at Ryan Hall, Lynn General Hospital, taking as his subject, "Hallmarks of a Successful Nurse."

In his address, Dr. Makechnie outlined the aptitudes, requirements and special talents needed to make a good nurse, stressing the importance of a sympathetic personality to one who enters the nursing profession. It is this quality, he maintained, which marks the difference between nursing as a skill and nursing as an art. Dr. Makechnie has been affiliated with B. U. since 1926.

THE MOTHER GOOSE FAIR

In their mind's eye the co-chairmen of decorations for the Epiphany annual bazaar, to be a Mother Goose fair this year, Mrs. Guy Livingston and Mrs. Harrison M. Haine, are now beginning to see just how the parish hall will look Friday morning, Nov. 2, when the doors open at 10 o'clock admitting the public to the bazaar which committees have hurried for and made through the year.

Mother Goose will herself appear in a poster conspicuously presiding over the corner of May Mary, quite contrary. Here Mrs. Charles A. Underwood and Mrs. Ambrose Reagoner, in charge of the plant table, will have things to brighten a corner all through the winter. Next spring in various Winchester gardens special exhibits will be reminding their owners of the Epiphany plants and Mrs. John C. Chipman, who took orders for them in time for planting. Other members of the plant committee are Mrs. Arthur Jackson, Mrs. Robert Fletcher, Mrs. Maurice Freeman, Mrs. E. C. Chubb, Mrs. Arthur Irving.

Mother Goose notes will be worked out for other tables. Mrs. Henry Sawyer's store of preserves and relishes will be sold from Mother Goose's table. The food table, in charge of Mrs. Roland Fletcher and Miss Dorothy Hall, will remember that lover of a good pie, Simple Simon, variety and gift tables will play up folks bound for Banbury Cross and other gay places for seeing and buying.

And so, the rhymes will go on. Assisting Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Haine will be Miss Helen Redfern, Mrs. F. William Aestline, Jr. and Mrs. W. R. Mills. Mrs. Harold H. Blanchard in charge of poster publicity for the center, will interview the work of her committee, Mrs. George Marks and Miss June Moffette, with the plans of the decorating committee.

FOOD SALE

The W. W. G. Girls of the Baptist church will hold a food sale at the Thrift Shop on Nov. 3, 10:30 o'clock. The women of the church are providing the food.

EIGHTH VICTORY LOAN

The Eighth Victory Loan Drive for Winchester will start the first week in November and will consist of a house-to-house canvass. It is all too easy to conclude, since victory has been completely won, that there is no further need to buy War Bonds. Any truly patriotic person, however, will sense that our obligation does not stop short with victory but that many important national tasks remain in making sure of enduring peace and in returning millions of those in the armed services to assured civilian livelihoods.

The slogan of this Victory Loan Drive—"they finished their work, let's finish ours" is very definitely to the point.

The Eighth Victory Loan has an eleven billion dollar goal and the quota for Winchester is $1,115,000 of which $201,000 is in Series E Bonds and an additional $914,000 is in other bonds for purchase by individuals.

A preliminary meeting of key workers and members of the Winchester War Finance Committee was held by Chairman Maurice C. Bird and was held last Wednesday evening at the library.

The work of house-to-house calls will be directed largely by the same precinct chairmen and co-chairmen who have served in previous War Loan Drives.

Chairman Bird brought out one particularly interesting point at the meeting in saying that the present Victory Loan may well represent one of the surest ways of preventing inflation as well as assuring our government the means of meeting its obligations.

Mr. Bird expressed the belief that the task ahead will not be easy but that in the end, Winchester will not fail in meeting and exceeding its quota.

"In Washington, as the War Department announced the demobilization for the Pacific of a seven-man labor-management-government team to discuss with GIs the current labor-management difficulties."

If there still remain any skeptical souls who have not yet been convinced that the Washington crowd are not busily engaged in making over the U. S. Constitution and form of government, the above quotation from the current issue of Newsweek should be read again. Since when has our government felt it necessary to "discuss" political labor troubles with its armed forces? Only when the New Deal started in to give us this "brave new world" now "devolving everybody! And at this late date, with the hue and cry to return the veterans it is all the more impressive that it is felt necessary to send a seven-man team clear to the Pacific to discuss labor problems. Many people feel that the slow return of the veterans is satisfactory to Washington. They feel that any delay in their return gives all the more time for the labor unions to entrench themselves. They say that the only hope of retaining the traditional way of American government is through the return of our soldiers, who they say, are not at all in sympathy with the high wages and "satisfactory" strikes which the Washington crowd has fostered while they have been overseas fighting. If a part of the training of our armoured forces consists in instruction in labor-management-government discussion, it certainly bears out this thought. Returned veterans, despite the largest headed helmet, will in most instances want to get a job. They will want to work more than they will want to join a union — and especially a union beset by someone hardly removed from those with whom they have been fighting. They will not be in the mood to pay any tribute to any union for the privilege of working and earning their living. They largely survived through their own efforts. They are in no mood to bow down to these political bosses who desire to take up where they left off in Europe and the Pacific. Much publicity is given to every hundred or thousand troops returned to their homes, and whether they are being returned as fast as possible is not to our knowledge, but when the Washington crowd send political advisors, (and that is what it boils down to) to instruct the soldiers in New Deal ideology it leaves little doubt as to the general intent, return of troops or not. The present slogan of labor-management-government speaks volumes. Labor in the lead, management in the middle and the government pushing its way through along. Perhaps Mr. Stalin has got something when he says we had better straighten out our own affairs before we start in to remake the world.

THANKS TO THE STAR AND WORKERS

To the Editor of the Star:
Many thanks once again for your excellent support of the Greater Boston United War Fund's campaign for 1946 needs of Red Feather services and continuing wartime appeals. And may I also express appreciation through your columns for the loyalty of workers and givers who have shared so generously in this critical post-war drive.

Sincerely yours,

NUFF SED

To the Editor of the Star:
Once upon a time a woman moved into a new community and asked the postman on her route what sort of neighbors she had. He asked her what sort of neighbors she had in the town she had moved from. She said they were cold, selfish, and inhospitable. The postman replied, "You will find your neighbors here the same."

Another woman who had moved into the community asked the same question of the postman, and he asked her what sort of neighbors she had in the town she had just left. She replied, "Oh, they were wonderful people, warm hearted, hospitable, and kind." The postman replied, "You will find the same kind of neighbors here." Nuff sed.

PLAN COSTS TOWN LESS

To the Editor of the Star:
Since my letter of last week, several facts have come to light regarding the grade-crossing problem. This information should be given to the taxpayers, as they will have to decide, ultimately, between one or another plan.

First of all, it should be understood that the B. and M. will do nothing unless forced. This standpoint attitude weakens their case when they bring up objections to proposals made by the Town and the State Board of Public Works. The next point is this: the Board of Public Works will take action to eliminate our grade-crossing if the Town presents a plan that will work. Our Selectmen have gone over a score of plans and have eliminated all but two. These two schemes call for new traffic highways, new traffic circles and new large land takings and damage. Either will cost the Town a large amount of money. They require months of construction with steam shovels, bulldozers and trucks. The entire center of Town would be a mess for months. When the dust cleared away, the B. and M. trains would still be thundering through the heart of our town. Properly planned, it will be going up or down steps to get from one side of the tracks to the other. Our Town would be little better or more beautiful. Our debt would be larger.

But there is one way to escape this last fact. Here is the secret: Actual construction costs such as ramps, bridges and subways are paid by the State and Federal Government, hundred per cent. Costs of land-takings and damages, on the other hand, are borne fifty-fifty, Government and Town. Therefore a plan that does not require large takings will cost the Town of Winchester practically nothing. Keep this in mind when you have your chance to vote. The only plan that elevates the street and moves of the trains and at the same time calls for no land takings or drastic rearrangement of the Center, is a plan that runs the tracks through a subway (covered, not open) starting north of the theatre and coming back to grade near Wellesmere.

If such a plan is presented to the Board of Public Works it has a good chance of being passed favorably, as it solves the problem in the simplest way. Such a proposal has merit enough to place it before the voters on an equal basis with the other plans now being considered by the Selectmen.

If you agree, now is the time to let your committee know what you want done. When the B. and M. protests, we should point out that no franchise to endanger life was ever granted to it. Let us not forget the grim history of this crossing.

NILH NISI BONUM

To the Editor of the Star:
The letter in which Mrs. O' Tempora, O' Mores complained of the bad manners of Winchester residents and the replies in your last week's issue of the Star have caused me to do a bit of thinking of my own along those lines.

It seems to me that this business of social contacts may be compared to molecular attraction. Like seeks like while dissimilar characteristics or tastes repel. When we came to Winchester some 20 years ago we neither expected nor desired to be "accepted" by those who years before had built the town's social "empire" and had established the rules which govern it. On the contrary we knew that eventually we should find those persons who would be attracted to us by what we had to offer and by them we would be made to feel at home. We also knew that here, as in every community, there would be those who would not like us, who would not even try to like us. We didn't care and we still don't. Neither do they.

We felt that we would be bound to be hurt if we pushed our way into circles where friendships had been formed long before we arrived. Rather than risk that hurt we busied ourselves with trying to find out how we could be of service to a community in which we, uninvited, had decided to make our home. To the extent we have succeeded we have been rewarded.

At last we did not sit idly by and sing the little song:
"I dream of ships that sail the sea
All wonderful, swift and about me,
Not one of mine comes back to me,
For I have sailed with them and about me."
But what we tried to do, not too successfully, I fear, was to be generous with our time, consideration of our neighbors, tolerant of the beliefs of others, and mindful ever of those little courtesies which are so easy to perform and are so far reaching in their effect.

I prefer, like Mrs. O' Tempora, O' Mores to be anonymous, so I sign myself

SHOULD INVESTIGATE BOARD OF HEALTH

To the Editor of the Star:
Enclosed is a copy of a letter sent to the Board of Selectmen, with regard to an investigation of the Board of Health.
Winchester, Mass.
Oct. 24, 1945
Board of Selectmen

Dear Sirs:
I would petition your board to make an investigation of the Board of Health, regarding the "sale or disposal" of material (garbage or refuse) from the town property off Swanton street, which is in their control by vote of the Special Town Meeting, Article 5, May 18, 1944.

May I call to your attention Article II, Sect. 1 By-Laws, pertaining to town property. By the amount of material removed so far from this town property, the value far exceeds the $500 limitation allowable without authority in writing from the Board of Selectmen, and, as your office reports no requests asked or granted for the town figure of $500, then it would appear that Article II, Section 1, has been violated.

Also, it would appear, that the Board of Health has exceeded the $500 limitation without legal authority. If, after investigation, it is found that these violations have occurred, strong disciplinary action should be taken against the responsible parties.

I would appreciate your immediate attention to this petition.
Sincerely yours,
Arthur J. Hewis, Jr.,

DAVID AND WALLACE HOWARD BOTH REACH HOME

Capt. David W. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Howard of Main street, returned from overseas last week and was honorably discharged from the Army. He had been nearly two years in Iceland, several months in England, and a year in France where he was in charge of a large ammunition depot. He received the bronze star medal for bravery during a big incendiary fire there. Capt. and Mrs. Howard are at present enjoying a well-earned vacation in No. Carolina, while small David (aged 3½) visits his grandparents on Main street.

First Lt. Wallace F. Howard, brother of Capt. David Howard, arrived in Winchester on the same day. He had been stationed at Guam with the 29th Air Force (B29 Super-fortresses) since last April and was awarded the air medal for meritorious service in combat missions over Japan. He was the sole survivor of a bad crash at Guam on June 22 and was flown to the United States in a hospital plane in July. Last week he was pronounced entirely healed of his injuries, and is now enjoying 45 days "overseas leave" in Winchester before returning to duty.

Last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howard, Capt. and Mrs. David Howard and small David, Lt. Wallace Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Wheeler (Priscilla Howard) all gathered at their summer home at Lake Sunapee for the first complete family reunion since the war.

FORNIGHTLY NOTES

Reception

In a setting of autumn flowers and foliage, Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, president of the Fortnightly, with club officers, welcomed presidents of neighboring clubs on Monday afternoon, at Fortnightly Hall. Mrs. A. Chesley York, 2nd vice president, MSFWC, and Mrs. William M. Munroe, 3rd District Director, guests of honor, were also in the receiving line.

Board members acted as hostesses under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Van Vleet. Mrs. T. P. Clarke and Mrs. R. K. Miller poured. Dessert was served by Mrs. Francis C. Bowes and Mrs. William Martens. Mrs. Norman Mitchell arranged the beautiful floral decorations.

After the reception Mrs. Whitman formally greeted the guests, and at the same time, challenged all club women to face squarely the problems of a post-war world. Mrs. Munroe, Mrs. H. L. Bennett, former president MSFWC, and Mrs. York responded briefly and graciously to the words of greeting. The latter urged greater personal interest in social problems.

Musical

The program opened with music by Helena Studinska-Silley, violinist and Sofia Stumberg, pianist, dressed in lovely Polish and Larian costumes, respectively. Mrs. Shibley, a former resident of Winchester and member of the Fortnightly, is a musician of superior ability and national fame. Miss Sofia Stumberg, besides furnishing an unusually understanding accompaniment for the violin, also gave a series of piano solos.

World Problems

The speaker of the afternoon was Dr. Charlotte Whitton, one of the most distinguished of Canadian University women, who has been honored with many decorations. In a witty and deeply thoughtful address, which showed a wide knowledge of world affairs, she reminded us that in a post-war world there is a lack of forward driving power and sense of sacrifice that is found in a world at war. We must have knowledge of where we are going, of the goal and of the road we must take.

Antiques

On Friday afternoon, Nov. 2, 2 p. m., Mrs. Alice Rowe Snow, mother of the historian and author Lt. Edward Rowe Snow, will tell of her adventures on her father's sailing bark, which rounded Cape Horn to Robinson Crusoe Island. She will play on her famous zither. A silver tea will be served by Mrs. Earle E. Andrews and Mrs. Paul G. Eberle. This is a public meeting.

A distinctive service always attended by a capable staff to serve your best interests.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Halloween party of the Wednesday Night Club of the First Congregational Church was a great success. Witches, artists, Aunt Jemima, Swiss mountain folk, Spanish senors and señoritas, Hawaiian dancers, English gentlemen, pirates, Indians, ladies of the 1900 and 1920 periods and bobby soxers all joined in making a colorful line in the grand march.

Judges, Dr. and Mrs. Howard J. Childley and Capt. and Mrs. Benjamin Coe awarded prizes to Mrs. Clair Swonger and Mr. Irving Plitt for the funniest costumes and to Mr. Winthrop Palmer and Mrs. Frank Hawkins for the most original.

After the covered dish supper the game committee started the chain gang on a scary trip over a dark and hazardous course, after which many unusual new and old Halloween games were played by teams. Ping pong and dancing began were all part of the fun.

SONS OF ITALY NOTES

On Wednesday night the Bowling League of the Winchester Lodge, Sons of Italy in America, played their second match of the series.

A. P. Tofurli rolled a three-string total of 321 pins, while Jeff Gaudioso garnered the high single with a 1-2. As a whole the bowling improved over last week.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

Displays in some of Winchester's store windows next week, Girl Scout Week, may surprise the populace, for though they have a serious purpose in emphasizing the importance of Scouting, the means used are rather unusual.

Troop 4, led by Mrs. Alfred Nelson, has co-operated enthusiastically in the project and is responsible for the ingenious figures vividly portraying different branches of Scouting activities to be seen in windows, graciously loaned by Hevey's Pharmacy and Dorothy Ellis. One will show the recreational side, life at the Girl Scout Day Camp during the summer, while, since "Citizenship in Action Around the World" has been adopted nationally as the theme of Girl Scout Week observances, the other will give a glimpse of Girl Scouts serving in the home, in the community, in the nation, and in the world.

It is impossible, of course, in such limited displays, to give a comprehensive idea of the true international significance of the movement. For instance, in the Girl Scout movement actually doubled during the German occupation in spite of German opposition, and after liberation they marched 20 deep down the Champs Elysees. In Italy, a full year before Mussolini was deposed, the Girl Scouts began rebuilding their organization, housing their meetings secretly in the Roman catacombs, and when Queen Wilhelmina returned to Holland, she was met by Dutch Girl Guides, dressed in the uniforms they had saved hidden for years.

Of more direct concern to us, perhaps, is the fact that when the Japs tried to set up a youth movement in the Philippines, it was not very successful, as the children were used to the democratic organization of Scouting. The head of the Girl Scout movement there was killed by the Japs, and the headquarters entirely wiped out, but the Philippine government is interested in reviving the movement as they count on it to provide organized recreation for the children, and the American Girl Scout organization has sent financial aid as well as supplies so that Scouting can be started again. The American Scouts have also provided money through the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund for the reprinting of the Polish Girl Scout handbook, and are sending literature to Gilling College in China, where Scout leaders are being trained. It is in honor of the birthday of this same Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting, that next week is being observed as "Girl Scout Week," beginning with our troops going to church on Sunday in uniform, in a body.

As fall activities get under way reports are being sent in by the scribbles of the various troops.

"The Girl Scouts of Troop 6, Mystic School, went to the Scout Cabin on Thursday, Oct. 18. A scavenger hunt was played with three teams. Team 3 won. A booby prize was given. A walk in the woods ended the afternoon."

This Saturday Troop 10 met and discussed previous events. A body of 43 girls appeared at Lyceum Hall. Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Rheeland attended the meeting. We also had our meetings in the Junior High School from 2.45 through 3.45. At our next meeting we plan to organize patrols for badge work. We hope to make our troop a successful one this year.

MYSTIC BOX SUPER AND SQUARE DANCE

All friends of Mystic School are invited to take part in the box super and square dance to be held in the auditorium on the evening of Nov. 2 at 6.30 p. m. The women are planning most attractive and exciting boxes to be auctioned off by a master of his art, Bouldin Burkhart, and the bidding is certain to be humorous and riotous. The makers of the boxes go with their masterpieces and the lucky bidders are assured of pleasant companionship as well as good food.

To follow out the old-time social idea, country dancing will follow with an expert caller to keep the figures straight. The music will be perfect and watching will be as much fun as participating, as well as less exhausting.

The Mystic Chapter of the Mothers' Association has planned this as its big fun and money-making project for the year.

The evening is in charge of Mrs. Paul Dunn, Ways and Means chair, assisted by Mrs. Oliver Dyer, ticket chairman, with the contact mothers as her committee.

They are Mrs. John Ghirardini, kindergarten, Mrs. Herbert Preble, first grade, Mrs. Addison Becker, second grade, Mrs. Ernest Wright, third grade, Mrs. Carl Morse, 4th grade, Mrs. George Gange, fifth grade, Mrs. Sanford Moss, sixth grade.

Coffee and punch will be served free of charge throughout the evening by Mrs. Howard Prentice and her committee.

This evening is not limited to parents of Mystic School and all who wish to share in the evening are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Dyer whose number is Win. 0674-M.

WRITES OF DAMAGE TO JAPAN

Lt. William A. Russell of 23 Jefferson road, in command of the LUS 24, is the writer of this letter.

Yokosuka, Yokohama and Tokyo are a mess. For 10 miles around Tokyo, there is very little standing. Bridges are still up and roads are good, but there are no manufacturing plants. It looks like a huge factory site after a fire. The burned and rusty machines are still there, but little else. In Tokyo itself the buildings which are left are office buildings. The fliers certainly did a great job of picking the target.

More than anything else, the Japs are more interested in food and clothing. There is little clothing and nothing from which to make it. I saw a Jap digging in an Army junk pile putting on three pairs of trousers and three shirts one on top of the other. There is little food other than what the U. S. Army has here. They will have a cold time this winter. From what I can see and hear, we are giving them very little and after what they have done to our boys, that is all right with us.

It is easy to see why the cartoonists make the Japs look like monkeys. When you look at some of them, with their protruding teeth, you expect to see them take to the trees and swing by their toes, any minute. The kids, however, are cute. They always shout, "Hello, Goodbye, Chewing gum!"

In two days, Oct. 14, we hit the homebound Pearl. I expect we will be in Pearl Harbor by Nov. 1, but don't know what happens after that.

CHRISTMAS GIFT LANE

Why not plan to get your Christmas shopping done early at the "Christmas Gift Lane" at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church on Friday, Nov. 2? Raymond Hancock and Mrs. Harris LeRoy co-chairmen for the fair have planned, will add much to the atmosphere of the holiday. Mrs. Arthur Fay and Mrs. Frank Horrick are chairmen for the Household Table. At the Sweater Bar will be Mrs. Lillabelle Perkins while dress-up and practical aprons may be purchased from Mrs. Stephen Burgoyne and Miss Fanny Young. ILLUSTRATED LECTURE AT SECOND CHURCH

Last Wednesday evening, Mr. George J. Heidt, Minister of Finance to Dr. Fosdick, gave an illustrated lecture on the Architecture and Symbolism of the Riverside Church.

He explained how many of the features about the architecture of a church we simply accept without realizing that they could tell us an interesting story. He pointed out the history and tradition behind many of our familiar architectural styles, illustrating his points with slides of the Riverside Church.

He went on to state that many people come to church out of habit, but there are some who come out of reverence, with a sincere desire to worship God. This latter group deserves to be surrounded by beauty in their church, so that the atmosphere may be one of warmth. Lovely music can help to put one in a worshipful frame of mind. There are many factors which combine to help put us in communion with God. Too often we attend a church service without realizing the part played by our surroundings.

A question period followed the lecture, and then refreshments were served. The meeting adjourned about 10:30.

MET IN NURNBERG

Two Winchester officers, far from home with the Army of Occupation in Nurnberg, met recently in Nurnberg. They would be Capt. William D. Barone, M. C., USA, and Lt. R. Sheldon Hamilton, Q. M. C., USA, the former a practicing physician in Winchester before the war and the latter, a lieutenant in the Star press room.

The two went to a symphony concert at the Nurnberg Opera House, which probably was all right with the captain and surely was right up the "Deacon's" alley, he being very partial to music of the masters. Between numbers he undoubtedly regaled Capt. Barone with an account of his near return to the United States, he having gotten as far as a port of embarkation in England before "they" decided that he was to go back to duty in Germany.

Capt. Barone has also recently met another Winchester boy, Richard Hawkes, who at that time was with a searchlight battalion in Nurnberg.

The Police got a call Monday afternoon from a west side woman who reported children stoning cars in the street near her home. Officer Irving Keardon responded and found that the woman wanted him to give her 4 year old daughter a lecture on the evils of stoning automobiles, the young lady and a male companion of about the same age being engaged in that interesting occupation. The Police are evidently expected to be all things to all men (and women) these days, but in the "good old days" a mother probably wouldn't have handled the matter in just that way.

"Why Britain Went Socialistic" is the subject of the lecture to be given by Mrs. Eunice Harriet Avery next Wednesday afternoon promptly at 2:30 in the Wyman School Hall. This is the second in the series of interpretations of world affairs sponsored by the Winchester Smith College Club to support its scholarship fund. Usher on Wednesday will be Mrs. Henry K. WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION
The Winchester Art Association opened its November show Tuesday evening with a gallery talk and demonstration by Harold Rotenberg, current exhibitor.
It is always a pleasure to anticipate Mr. Rotenberg's appearance for it usually means an informal evening and one given to frequent spasms of laughter. Once again, the anticipation was justified for his flow of conversation while painting, interspersed with interested questions, remarks and suggestions to the audience made the evening entertaining as well as informative.
Mr. Rotenberg painted a portrait of Mr. Marshall W. Symmes who proved a patient and worthy model. It was fascinating to see the finished portrait evolve slowly from the few black brush marks which Mr. Rotenberg made during the first four or five moments.
After the demonstration, Mr. Rotenberg spoke briefly about each of his paintings displayed in the gallery, telling where each one was done and why.
Following the gallery talk, candy was served to the members by the hostess, Mrs. G. Russell Mann, and her assistants.
Mr. Rotenberg's exhibit of oils will remain in the gallery through the month of November. The date of the December meeting has been changed to Sunday afternoon, Dec. 2, at which time the Hermann Dudley Murphy Memorial Exhibition will be opened.

The apple that meant jobs... not joblessness!

In the '30s, the apple became the symbol for joblessness!
Well... here's one that meant jobs!
We don't know the name of the apple, but we do know the name of the man. He was Robert Douglas, aged 20, who landed here in 1888, from Scone in Scotland.
An immigrant, with a Scotch burr and little money... but with an abiding faith in his own destiny and that of America.
For twenty-three years, Douglas made ends meet by working for manufacturers of jams and jellies... studying fruit chemistry in his spare time, until destiny, in the form of an apple, caught up with him in 1912.
Then, Douglas became the first to extract commercially the fruit ingredient known as pectin to science, and as Certo to you... the product which takes the guesswork out of jam and jelly making, helps fruits jell just right.

With Certo, Douglas started a business, which, in growing, created jobs where no jobs had ever existed before... work for apple growers, fruit pickers, for jam and jelly manufacturers, for wholesale and retail grocers.
These jobs produced pay and purchasing power, and contributed to a prosperity that produced the highest standard of living in the world.
Making jobs is new America's most crucial problem... regular employment for all who want to work.
Millions of jobs can be made if we encourage the Robert Douglas's of today to put their ideas into practice... ideas that range all the way from building neighborhood businesses to expanding today's great industries.
Yes, American initiative can meet the need for jobs, provided the rules and regulations governing business do not discourage enterprise and remove the incentive of a fair reward. But if business is hindered in its job-making plans, the alternative might be Government relief projects to make up the jobs, perhaps including your job.

The choice is partly yours. For through your opinions and representations, you make the rules and regulations under which business must operate. Thus, you have a voice in determining how many jobs business can provide, and how quickly.
So, when you make up your mind about questions which can affect business... ask yourself: "Will this measure result in making more jobs the way Americans want their jobs made?"
In your decisions may lie the future of your job, and the future of your country.

MRS. BOND COMING HOME
Mrs. Barbara Corwin Bond, wife of the late Jacob Bond and daughter of Mr. Arthur R. Corwin of Rutland, Vt., is reported as soon to come home from Benal India where she has been serving as business of a Red Cross service unit for American enlisted men of an Army Air Force depot there.
Known as the "Hot Bird," Mrs. Bond's trip is the largest since the India-Burma area. She has been 18 months on Red Cross assignments doing something for the life every minute of every day from sunrise to long after dark.
Now she is ready for work at home which are expected momentarily. Her family, the mothers of which include her mother, father, her sister, Mrs. Frances Niles, and her brother, Mr. Arthur R. Corwin, eagerly await her arrival. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bond of Marsh St., was in action while serving with the United States Navy.

A CARD OF THANKS

Thanks to you—my customers, for forcing me to make more room for a larger, more complete and more modern jewelry store.

Many of you have bought diamonds, watches and other articles of jewelry and have told your friends of the unusual high quality and reasonable prices.

I appreciate the opportunity you have given me to enlarge my selection of diamonds, watches and everything that goes to make a modern jewelry store. You will now find here just the little gift that you have looked for in many of the Boston stores, and at prices that will surprise you.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

Nov. 11-17. Know Your Schools!
PROGRESS OF HISTORY LOAN DRIVE

Volunteer solicitors are actively engaged in making house-to-house calls this week and next. On the very first day, Oct. 30, more than $10,000 in Series E Bonds was subscribed. One prominent chairman has requested a pledge of $100,000 in other than Series E Bonds.

Mauro Bird announces the appointment of the following additional Practices Co-Chairmen:

Precinct 1, Mrs. John M. Cullen, 25 Stone avenue, Mrs. Leo V. Manoli, 34 Hillcrest parkway.
Precinct 2, Mrs. John C. Gilbert, 6 Stevens street.
Precinct 3, Mrs. Henry A. Dellicker, 15 Grove street.
Precinct 4, Mrs. Harry N. Squires, Jr., 4 Sheffield west.
Precinct 5, Mrs. Oscar E. Merrow, 19 Glenbury.

Either late this week or the first of next week, a circular will be left at each home in Winchester. It contains a brief, highly interesting article on Victory Bonds.

Everyone is urged to read it. The free distribution of these circulars is made possible by the cooperation of Postmaster Ambrose and the Winchester Post Office.

One of the points perhaps least understood by the majority of people concerning the 8th Victory Loan is its effect as a brake on inflation. Inflation is the worst of all economic diseases in that it reduces the value of money in terms of what money will buy.

After the usual question and answer period, refreshments were served and another highly successful evening was entered in the Men's Club record.

STIMULATING MEETING

A very gratifying number of women representing over 20 women's organizations met at the library on Wednesday to hear the four speakers invited to be present. Mrs. Theodore Browne presided and introduced them in turn. Harry Gardner, trustee of the Grange educational aid fund explained the ways in which the generous help of Grange members made higher education available to 2250 students over the last 34 years, the total loans amounting to $704,411.50.

Mrs. Lyman Smith of the Mothers' Association outlined the changes made in the former Scholarship Committee, with the new Town Foundation set up. All organizations in town will be given an opportunity to join with whatever donation possible, thus allowing representative membership in a general committee, from which will be appointed five members who will decide on scholarship awards, one member of this committee to be replaced each year.

The trustees will receive and administer funds received from organizations and individuals. Mr. Donald Heath distributed copies of the 2000 pamphlets which have been sent to all returned veterans as well as to the service. With 20 to 40 veterans returning weekly, the office for consultation is to be open five days a week from 9 to 4. Up to the previous day Mr. Heath stated that 181 contacts had been made, advice and assistance having been given through a great many of its services.

Mrs. Clark Collins, chairman of the Cum and Hospital Committee of the Red Cross, stressed the need for Motor Cross drivers as well as the importance of the Home Nursing course being given by the Red Cross. She explained her committee as merely a clearing house for the distribution of gifts to veterans in various hospitals and hospital ships.

BUY VICTORY BONDS

THIS, we reasoned, is no time to offer folks a car that stops with artful face-lifting.

It has been nearly four years since our last new Buick was built—it wouldn't be shooting square now to give you less than our honor-bright best.

So we overhauled our whole factory to advantage it with the latest in war-developed machines and processes.

We scoured the country for the stoutest metals anyone can buy today.

We set ourselves precisions that in some cases exceed those of aircraft engine production.

And we eagle-eyed every one of this Buick's

12,000 parts to see if it could be bettered in any way, big or little.

The result is that through every stunning inch of this bright new honey runs solid, dependable Buick character, honest and uncompromised.

It's in swift clean lines. In seats that are three-persons wide. In stout, time-defying frames and underpinning. Above all—in the lift and life of a Fireball straight-eight that's even livelier than in 1942.

The cars your Buick dealer will have are big. They're beautiful. They're Buicks.

In fact—the best Buicks yet!

What other car has so much that clicks for Forty-Six!

- POWER—from a Buick Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight, more than 90 peak return from every drop of fuel.
- HIGH STYLE—of car-length doors, slender coil button rear screen shields.
- OIL SAVINGS—from non-cut-back 4.55:1 cylinder bore.
- FLASHING ACTION—of light, lively Fireball and piston.
- STEADINESS—from full-length torque-to-drive in a sealed chassis.
- GLIDING RIDE—from Panther-gait all-coil springing with only a comfort job to do.
- COMFORT—of soft Foamix cushions, with luxury-type springs.
- SURE FOOTING—of Broadmoor wheels, maximum tire mileage, no heel-over on curves, and better car control.
- CONTROL—through Permi-form steering which eliminates need for frequent adjustments.
- CONVENIENCE—of high-lift, easy-to-park parking brake that sets with a toe-touch and holds fast.
- PROTECTION—of buttressed front and rear bumpers, curved to shield passengers, built for new bumper jack.
- SMARTNESS—of genuine Buick by Fisher with one-piece Turret Top, No Draft Ventilation, roomy interior, and three-person seats.

Exalted Ruler Michael F. Grant of Winchester Lodge, 1445, B. P. O. E. calls attention through the Star to a statement made by the Elks Grand Exalted Ruler, Wade H. Kemner, in which he urges civic and fraternal organizations to continue some of their war-time activities and to intensify them should the need arise.

Mr. Kemner believes activities for service men at home and abroad should be continued because "now that the excitement of battle has been replaced by routine military duties, it is more essential than ever that folks on the home front do everything possible to sustain the morale of our armed forces."

There will be tables with bright new aprons, tables laden with home made candies, tables filled with all types of home foods, surprise tables for the kiddies (it is really for the parents?) a novel parcel post section, and many others. We don't want to mention them all because that would spoil some of the fun, served which it is hoped will be a real family affair. During the afternoon tea will be served. It is hoped that this year's fair will be bigger and better and more fun than ever.

SUPPER AUCTION AND DANCE

The Mystic School Mothers' Association held a box supper auction and square dance last Friday evening in the school hall for the benefit of the scholarship fund, the affair being one of the most enjoyable held by the group for some time.

With W. Allan Wilde lending the professional touch as auctioneer, the men hid in the individual box suppers brought by the women, eventually eating his supper with the woman whose box he had purchased. Bidding was fast and furious, the top being $11 bid by Mr. Donald Frobie.

After supper, square dancing was enjoyed with a caller and two piece music furnished by the Country Dance Association of Boston.

The hall was most artistically decorated by Mrs. Arthur Amesow with flowers and vegetables loaned by Cummings the Florist and the Economy Grocery Co. Mrs. Paul Dunn, chairman of the arrangements committee, was assisted by Mrs. Colver Dyer and Mrs. Howard Prentiss.

CLOSE CALL AT CROSSING

While Winchester's Selectmen are preparing to bring plans for the elimination of the grade crossing to the attention of the town at a hearing in the near future, another near tragedy took place at the crossing late yesterday afternoon.

While driving her automobile north on Main street about 5:20 p.m., Dorothy Robinson of Ridge road, Lawrence, became confused and turned her machine into the open space on the tracks between the north and south crossings in front of the gate-tender's building and traffic tower. The machine stalled facing Winchester station, the two right wheels on the railroad ties and the two left wheels on the crushed stone of the road bed.

The through express train Winchester at 5:27 was nearly a night. The gate-tender quickly ran a flag and with Officer William Callahan got Mrs. Robinson and her daughter from the machine. It was impossible to get the car from the tracks before the train came through, but the engineers brought the express to a stop with the last car just at the entrance of Stone road, James H. Fitzgerald of Washington street attempted unsuccessfully to drive the machine from the tracks, staying in the car until the last possible moment.

The big train barely cleared the stalled car, shearing off the left rear fender as though it was so much cheese, and also taking off a door handle. A big and excited crowd was on hand and vigilance on the part of Officer Callahan and the crossing tender was necessary to prevent serious trouble.

After the train had passed the assistance of several men were recruited and the car gotten from the tracks, with no other the worse than what might have been another grim tragedy.

"WINCHESTER THE BEAUTIFUL"

The Winchester National Bank is distributing copies of "Winchester the Beautiful," a most attractive pamphlet of slides of the town, recently prepared primarily for Winchester residents in the armed services as a reminder of the old home town.

Now that the war is over the booklet is being sent to all Winchester homes, but it is still the bank's wish to send it to those men and women still in service. The cooperation of those who know of any who might care for it will be appreciated.

The booklet is handsomely illustrated with photographs of public buildings, churches, schools, play grounds and beauty spots about town. It makes a handsome souvenir any Winchesterite is sure to appreciate.

A former Winchester boy, Neil Cole, who grew to manhood at the corner of Highland avenue and Main street, was in town Monday after an absence of 49 years. The only old-timer he contacted was Miles Hubbard. Mr. Cole is located in Florida, married and has a family. Many old residents will remember him and his family, who were once prominent in the town's affairs.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

In connection with the much discussed question of the grade crossing, the Board has obtained the services of a very well known engineer, Mr. Lewis E. Moore, to make a survey of present plans and submit suggestions.

Mr. Moore comes to the Board well qualified. He is a graduate of M. I. T. and has been connected with the Boston Elevated Railroad; was chief bridge and signal engineer for the Mass. Department of Public Utilities, has been consulting engineer for the Boston Elevated Railroad and has been connected with various important engineering projects, such as the overpass at Ambrose, Monson and Cottage Farm Bridge. He is a veteran of both World Wars, past president of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, past president of the New England section of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

The property at Church, School and Dix streets known as the Prince School lot has been bid out into four lots and the Board is offering it for sale and will receive bids.

If you have been stopped recently by traffic inspectors it may be of interest to know that the government is making a survey of the origin and destination of commercial trucks with the idea of improving the traffic and highway system throughout the metropolitan area.

WOBURN HERE FOR HOLIDAY CLASSIC

Winchester High and Woburn High Schools play their annual Thanksgiving Day football game at Winchester Field next Thursday morning at 10:30, and regardless of how the locals fare at Wakefield tomorrow, and Woburn makes out with Stoneham, the Red and Black should be favored over the Black and Orange.

The Tamers have had a dismal season, losing to Wintthrop, 13-0; to Reading, 27-0; to Wakefield, 41-0; to Swampscott, 18-0; and to Nashua, 24-0. They have won at St. Clement's of Somerville, 19-13, and tied Watertown 7-7, scarcely an impressive record.

Winchester got by Swampscott 7-6, beat Wintthrop 14-6, Reading, 22-0, and Watertown, 13-0.

The Star isn't holding the Tamers too cheap. We have seen too many good Winchester teams upset by so-so Woburn clubs and vice versa to try to drop this year's contest on past form. The local physical and mental condition after their game with Wakefield tomorrow will have a lot to do with how they go against Woburn, while the Tamers are playing Stoneham, a team Winchester beat 26-0 with everyone but the press and Jawns Stevens in the lineup.

Since 1925 Winchester has won 8 games, Woburn 7, and five have been ties. Keep this in mind before you bet too much on either team's chances. The breaks and weather will count heavily, as always, in the final decision. Winchester ought to win, but as we write this vision of that 1943 thing floats into view and...we dunno!

One thing is certain, a big crowd will be on hand for the classic, and those who don't like to stand in line for tickets can get them in advance at either McCormack's or Hevey's Pharmacies on or after Nov. 19.

LUTHER W. PUFFER

Luther W. Puffer of 33 Wildwood street, well known Winchester insurance broker and treasurer of the former Puffer Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of soda fountains, died Wednesday night, Nov. 14, at the Kenmore Hospital in Boston, following a two months illness.

Mr. Puffer was the son of Luther W. Puffer, Jr., of Woburn, who was born Aug. 12, 1876, in Medford and spent his early life in that city, being educated in the Medford schools and at Bryant and Stratton Commercial College in Boston. His first business connection was with his great-grandfather's firm, A. D. Puffer and Sons, pioneer manufacturers of soda fountains, on Portland street in Boston.

Later he and his three brothers, Stanley, Leon and Alvin, formed the Puffer Manufacturing Company, with factory on Swanston street, manufacturing soda fountains and doing marble work for many years.

Upon the dissolution of this firm he became president of the Winchester Insurance firm of Luther W. Puffer, Jr., Inc., with an office in the Hovey Block, remaining in this business until his death. He was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of William Peckham Lodge of this town and of Algonquin Lodge, the Mystic Shrine. He was also a member of Winchester Lodge, 1415, B. P. O. E., and of the former Club Club.

Mr. Puffer leaves his wife, Mrs. Annie A. Puffer, a daughter, Doris, of Boston; a son, Luther W. 2nd, USNR; and three brothers, Stanley, of this town; and Leon and Alvin, Puffer of Medford. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Church of the Epiphany with the pastor, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, officiating. Interment will be made and will take place in Wildwood Cemetery.

MRS. EMMA F. REED

Mrs. Emma F. Reed, wife of Albert A. Reed, formerly of Winchester, died Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, at her home in the Hotel Sheraton, Boston, after a year's illness.

She made her home in Winchester for 30 years and was a member of Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R. of this town. Before taking up residence at the Hotel Sheraton three years ago she and her husband made their home at 8 Stevens street. They were married Oct. 28, 1937.

POLICE HOLD CONCERT AND BALL

The Concert and Ball of the Winchester Police Relief Association attracted the usual capacity crowd to the attractively decorated town hall last evening, all seats being taken long before the curtain rose for the entertainment program.

An excellent show bill was presented with the extremely personable Jerry McCol as M. C. Elaine and James presented a Musical Divertissement with Elaine playing a piano accordion to accompany James on axes of all voices, flute, piccolo, trumpet, melophone, clarinet and finally a bass clarinet. High lighting this act was James playing "Sweet Mystery of Life" on two axes at once.

Rosita and Perry presented ball room and exotic dancing in pleasing fashion with Bob Nellor and G. I. proving to be a cleverly ventriloquist act. The Avenger Sisters turned out to be three more male who danced through jazzy songs and Wally West offered clever impersonations of familiar public and radio characters.

Kay Rivers, favorite radio songstress, played with "Victory P-1-K", "Boy of Mine" and a medley from "Oklahoma," encoring with a bouquet of eleven favorites. Jerry McCol presented one of the best acts on the bill, a dancing specialty which included dance imitations, an Irish jig, wooden solo and a "litterbug" for the galleries. In the last he was assisted by a popular Winchester girl, Mary Perta, who came down from the gallery and really "did all right."

The show, presented as advertised, was by George A. Hamid, Jr. under the personal direction of Jacy Collier, Hal Freede played for the show.

After the entertainment the hall was cleared by Lee McElroy and his assistants, dancing with him continued until 1 o'clock to the music of Hal Freede and his orchestra.

Chief William H. Rogers was floor marshal with Lt. Edward W. O'Connell, assisted by Sers. J. Joseph Derr and Thomas F. Cassidy, floor directors. Officers Archie O'Connell and William J. Callahan were chief aides and the aides, O'Connell, Joseph Derr, Thomas F. Cassidy, John H. Boyle, Clarence E. Dunbar, James F. Noonan, D. Irving Buehard and James F. Flaherty. Officers James P. Donaghey, James E. Farrell, J. E. Houghton and William J. Cassidy acted as reception committee.

Sgt. Charles J. Harrold was chairman of the hall committee with Lt. O'Connell as secretary. Other committees were Entertainment and Music, Sgt. Derr, Officers James P. Donaghey, Archie O'Connell, John J. Murray, James F. Noonan, Edward F. Bowler, Wm. J. Houghton, James F. Flaherty, Officers James P. Donaghey, James E. Farrell, J. E. Houghton and William J. Cassidy acted as reception committee.

During the ball the town was policed by special officers and Auxiliary police assisted by members of the State Constabulary.

MARCUS COOK FOWLER

Marcus Cook Fowler of Simsbury, Conn., a former resident of Winchester, died Saturday, Nov. 10, at a hospital in Hartford, Conn., following a three months illness.

Mr. Fowler was the son of John, and Lydia (Louise) Fowler. His father was American Consul to China and he was born in Ningpo, in that country, Feb. 18, 1892. His education was begun in China and completed at Bordentown Military Academy and Phillips Academy, Andover.

As a young man Mr. Fowler was far eastern representative for the Burgess Watch Company, and it was in Yokohama, Japan, on June 18, 1918, that he married the former Lillian F. Knapp of this town, his bride going on from Winchester for the ceremony. For several years he and his wife lived in Shanghai, China, before returning to occupy his wife's old home on Chestnut street where they resided until leaving Winchester in 1940.

Mr. Fowler, at the time of his illness, was employed as an inspector for the Hamilton Standard Propeller Co. in Hartford, a branch of United Aircraft. Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. W. Stanley Hunt of Simsbury, Conn.; a son, Robert Newton Fowler, MM 2c, U.S. Coast Guard, recently returned from the Philippines; Cpl. John Fowler, USAF, stationed at Greensboro, N. C.; Philip Fowler of Simsbury, and a grandson, W. Stanley Fowler Jr.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the Kelley and Hawes Chapel with Rev. Paul H. Maddux of Cambridge officiating. Interment was in the Knapp family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

WAS FATHER OF FORMER WINCHESTER MAN

Frank Carroll Howe, 73, retired Boston and Maine Railroad employee and direct descendant of Joshua Howe, builder of the Wayside Inn in Sudbury, Mass., died at his home in Rockland, Me., last Saturday after a long illness.

He was the fourth generation of Howes to be born in Gardner, Mass., after part of the family moved from Sudbury where the original Howe had built the inn on a grant of land from Henry the Sixth of England.

He was the son of Augustus and Jennie Carroll Howe and is survived by his wife, Lilla Butman; a son, Guy R. Howe of Andover, Mass., formerly of Winchester, and two grandsons, Lt. Col. Guy Howe, Jr., USNS and Charles P. Howe.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. from the late residence. The interment was in Gardner, Mass.

The Winchester Auxiliary of the M.S.P.C.A. met at the home of Mrs. George H. Davis on Mystic Valley Parkway for the November meeting.

The Ways and Means Committee reported $151 realized on the Wayside sale for the benefit of The Star.

All Winchester Churches and organizations have been contacted with a view to forming a Winchester Band of Mercy.

The Auxiliary will send their regular contribution for the Bibles Christmas and any other to contribute may send their check to Mrs. William Boggs 17 Stowell Rd.

An interesting and inspiring talk on "Birds in My Garden" was given by Mrs. Herbert T. West.

Do you know there is a squirrel proof feeding station obtainable? Mrs. West recommends reading "Wings at my window."

HARVEST HOME SUPPER

Tasteful autumn decorations made an attractive background for the annual Harvest Home Supper and Planning Conference of the First Baptist Church on Thursday, Nov. 8. Over 200 members and friends sat down to the colorful tables.

Mr. Frederick S. Emery, church moderator, introduced the guests seated at the head table: Dr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Lindsay, Rev. and Mrs. Walter L. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Emery, Miss L. Jennie Crawford and Rev. Arthur L. Winn.

Following the supper, Mr. Davenport F. Davis, chairman of the Executive Board, called for brief reports of the proposed year's activities from the various committees and organizations of the church. These reports indicated a full and worthwhile program for the whole church.

Dr. Samuel L. Lindsay, the guest speaker of the evening, in his inimitable mingling of humor and seriousness, drew the attention of the audience to the four influences which he believes will mold America's future—the home, where love reigns; the school, where understanding reigns; the town hall, where Democracy reigns; and the church, where Christ reigns.

The housewife's meal, so well prepared and served, was the work of the members of the Philathea Class, under the direction of its president, Mrs. Harry H. Dickie, and Mrs. Paul C. Ward, chairman of the supper committee.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS DAY

November 26th, International Relations Day, will be the joint meeting with the Winchester League of Women Voters.

The League has announced Mr. Thomas H. Mahony, United States delegate to the San Francisco conference, as the morning speaker.

Mrs. J. Stewart Chubb, secretary, was of an excellent lunch at the Crawford Memorial Church.

The speakers at the noon meeting will be Mrs. Edward Cameron and Mrs. Harold D. Given.

The Fortnightly has Mr. Douglas Harling of Harvard University for the afternoon speaker. Mr. Harling lived in Japan for seven years having taught English and History in the Japanese schools. His subject "The Future of Japan" should be of vital importance to us all.

It is hoped that all Fortnightly and Winchester League members will avail themselves of the privilege of attending these meetings.

WINCHESTER WOMAN EARNS $40 ON TELLO-TEST QUIZ

Mrs. E. Edgar of 9 Central street, was the lucky recipient of $40 last Friday morning because she knew the answer to the question, "If you traveled up a river from Old Town, Fla. to White Springs, Fla. what river could it be?" The answer is "The Suwannee River," and Mrs. Edgar had the answer ready when Fred Lauf, master of ceremonies for the "Tello-Test" radio quiz, dialed her number.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

Regardless of the holiday many Fortnightly members braved the inclement elements to attend the meeting on Monday.

Mrs. Walter W. Winslow and Mrs. James A. Riley presided at the beautifully appointed table. Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes reported for the Star Art Committee, told of the two projects being sponsored by them—namely, "The penny Art project," and the work being carried on with the returning veterans in the various hospitals.

Mrs. William E. Priest read the report of the delegate to the Autumn meeting of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs at Northampton. An appeal from the Red Cross for Motor Corps drivers was read. Colored moving pictures, with explanatory sound track, of the Asiatic expedition for the American Geographical Society took us from Paris, France, across Germany, through the Balkans into Asia, Turkey, Persia and India. Mr. Thaw's expedition kept one step ahead of the war which has destroyed so much of the beauty shown in the pictures.

E. MINETTE KNIGHT A Tribute

Since the last meeting of the Music Garden, one of our most beloved members has left our ranks and gone to the Celestial Music Garden where our Heavenly Father presides. We shall miss her.

Minette Knight was one of the earliest members of our Club, and her interest was manifested throughout twenty-five years of very active participation in all of its activities including its presidency.

She was a kind, lovable, loyal, dependable, gentle Christian woman, and she was never known to speak of an unkind, unfair word against anyone.

She was always solicitous for the welfare of others, and her long illness was constantly characteristic of that gentleness and patience which filled her whole life and which knew no complaint.

We are the richer for having known her so long and so well, and her whole world is the poorer since she has left it.

A righteous soul has returned to God.

WINCHESTER CROSSING AN OLD PROBLEM

A Winchester woman in the Medical Journal of March, 1931, proved interesting reading recently in view of the present discussion of Winchester's grade crossing problem. It appears that the Town objected to the location of the Boston and Lowell railroad station, then located at the north end of the crossing. Objection was made that when the trains stopped the traffic across the crossing would be stopped. The railroad company was willing to locate the station wherever the Town desired and a committee appointed to select a site chose the present location. The station was built on the site chosen by the Town. In the years past every board member reported that in being up to these requirements some outstanding students have had to be eliminated because of not fulfilling one or another of them, either by not attending an elementary school in Winchester or of not receiving financial assistance. Therefore such students were not recommended by the Association at graduation. This has been the case for many years. The committee voted that instead of honoring only those who received recommendation with stiffered, all of the students who had fulfilled the minimum educational requirements according to the best information the committee could gather, would receive a recommendation award. From these three who fulfilled the requirements, were awarded the award with stiffered of $300 each. They were three of the 11 of the 1945 graduates who were awarded the recommendation award.

The fund available for scholarships in Winchester have reached a point where it is felt possible to start a new scholarship fund. A plan for such a fund is in process of formation and will be presented to all organizations in town requesting their consideration and suggestions. There are so many varieties of vegetables that the amateur gardener may be puzzled to identify some puny specimen. No trouble at all for the professional market gardener to name it.

Likewise there are so many varieties of insurance that it takes an expert to diagnose the different hazards to which a given individual is or may be exposed and to prescribe how best to secure adequate protection from possible financial loss.

IT REALLY HAPPENED

Secretary Covers Double at Palmer Beach

Readers of this column will have their doubts and about members of the Association will very probably refuse to believe that the fact remains that at last week-end's regular meeting of the Palmer Beach Horsehoe Association, the lowly and usually hunched Secretary actually ran the kickoff back for a touchdown, covering a double-header, to the expressed amazement of all present (including himself) the utter confusion of his opponents, "Wild Willie" McLaughlin and Herbert "Gardulous" Gardner, and the pure joy of his partner at the moment, Royal "Paper Trade" Teale.

So happy was Mr. Teale that his whoops of triumph caused heads to pop from windows of houses on Vine street to see what it was all about. A dazed smile wreathed the Secretary's usually drab features and even Mr. McLaughlin, the Pride of Stone and Champion of all Nabnasset, removed his well-smoked cigar to nutter, "Nice work."

The only sour note in the entire picture was Mr. Gardner's done visage, and his brief statement to the effect that he for one, failed to find anything at all nice in the Secretary's unbridled feat. He has "The Finger" Pridham had hit the punch and so could not help himself to those of Mr. Teale and Mr. McLaughlin. It goes without saying that he would have been just man enough to warn to the Secretary's good fortune.

There was some of the best pitching of the waning fall season in the beach last week-end. Mr. Teale and Mr. McLaughlin went down to a "defilection" in the opening match at the hands of Mr. Gardner and Mr. Pridham, and the "Lake Street Lancers" were again successful in opposing the Secretary and Mr. Gardner.

The last match, however, was a battle all the way with "Gardulous" and the Secretary taking the first game and losing the second, 25-21, when the Secretary missed a ringer in the final box. Mr. McLaughlin and Mr. Pridham jumped to a big lead of 19-6 in the deciding game, only to have the lucky Scribe and Mr. Gardner break out in a rash of ringers that wiped out their deficit and actually put them in front 21-20. The score was 20-22 for the Lancers when Mr. McLaughlin delivered the coup-de-grace.

Of the final match, in which Mr. Teale and the Secretary opposed Mr. McLaughlin and Mr. Gardner, little need be said. The Secretary covered Mr. Gardner's double in the very first box and this entirely unlooked for feat so bucked him and his partner that they went on to win the game from the utterly dumfounded opposition.

The next two games went to McLaughlin and Gardner, one by the score of 25-1. We will skip details. The Teale subscription, one of the Star's cherished assets, hangs in the balance, so we will say no more. Perhaps Mr. McLaughlin's observation that the Secretary looked round-shouldered at the end of play will give some slight inkling of what transpired. If not, the fact that Mr. Teale made no reference of any sort to getting back from Wells River should certainly tell the story.

Electric Cooking?

Are you interested in serving more nutritious meals to your family in the future?

- With more ease and speed than you have ever known before?
- In cool, comfortable surroundings?
- And with economy?

We believe homemakers will answer YES! Here are some reasons why we recommend ELECTRIC cooking for your consideration.

You'll be able to buy a new improved electric range like this soon!

- ELECTRIC COOKING IS CLEAN: Electric heat is sootless heat. Pans stay bright. Walls, windows and curtains stay clean.
- HEALTHFUL: Precious vitamins and natural food juices are preserved when you cook electrically - more nutrition for your family.
- COOL: Electric range ovens are thoroughly insulated. Surface units transfer heat directly to the utensils with minimum loss of heat.
- SAFE: An electric range is as safe as electric light. The insulated oven keeps the exterior cool.
- EASILY CONTROLLED: The same switch setting provides the same cooking temperature every time.
- ECONOMICAL: Heat is accurately measured and controlled by the switch - and you can cook on "stored" heat a large percentage of the time.
- FAST: Electric heat is instantaneously available and cooks as fast as food will cook.
- EXACT: Electric heat on a given speed never varies. Precision-built oven thermostat insures accurately controlled temperature.
- AUTOMATIC: Many electric ranges have automatic timing devices so that meals can be perfectly cooked in your absence.

and BOSTON EDISON wants to help you make the most of it.

He was a member of Winchester Council, 210, Knights of Columbus.

WILL SPEAK AT MISSION UNION GUILD

Mrs. Virginia Peirson McKinley will speak to the Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church on Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 2 o'clock.

The story that lies back of Mrs. McKinley includes the tale of a perilous game of hide and seek with the Japanese Army in the jungles and mountain reaches of a Philippine Island for over two years, with final escape by submarine to Australia.

Mrs. McKinley, wife of Dean James F. McKinley of Silliman University, Ithaca, N. Y., a Congregational educationalist under the American Board of Foreign Missions.

When word came of Pearl Harbor, the McKinleys were forced to decide whether they would flee to the mountains in hope of evading the enemy, or stay and surrender. They chose flight, and for over two years they and their three daughters lived a life of impending danger, often escaping from one hiding place after another only a few hours ahead of their pursuers.

WAITS and MEASURES

The filling of a prescription calls for exacting care in weighing and measuring the prescribed ingredients. It cannot be hurried. Therefore, when you must wait for your prescription, please remember that it is because the pharmacist is measuring each drug to the pinpoint of precision accuracy. He works as speedily as possible, but he cannot, must not, sacrifice safety to speed. For your protection, he makes haste slowly.

WINCHESTER BOYS AT CUSHING

Cpl. Peter Longiro of 65 Thomas street, Medford, formerly of Winchester, has been admitted as a patient to Cushing General Hospital. He came to Cushing from Ashford General Hospital, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

He served as a tank driver with the 7th Field Artillery of the 2nd Armored Division in Normandy, Belgium, Holland, and Germany, and wears the European Service Ribbon with four battle stars, as well as the Purple Heart for wounds received in Germany in November 1944.

His wife, Mrs. Virginia Longiro, and their two children, Grace and Michael, reside in Medford.

One of the first persons whom Cpl. Longiro met at Cushing was Pfc. Danny DeTosco of 12 Olive street, Winchester. DeTosco served with the 7th Inf. Regiment of the Third Division and was wounded in Cisterna, Italy on May 24, 1944. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore DeTosco of 12 Olive street.

FORMER WINCHESTER ATHLETE OFFICE MANAGER

Harold Johnson, former Winchester High School football and basketball player, has been named manager of the new branch office of Universal C. I. T. Credit Corporation in the Coolidge Building on Salem street in Medford. The corporation with headquarters in New York provides financing service to retail dealers and their customers for essential home repairs and reconditioning of cars and trucks.

Mr. Johnson, a graduate of Northeastern University, joined Universal's Boston office in 1935 as credit field representative, subsequently advancing to office manager at Brookline and branch manager at the old Medford office. Since September of this year he has been serving in an executive capacity at the Boston division office.

CAPE HARRINGTON HOME

Capt. C. Frederick Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Harrington of 23 Stone avenue, has recently returned from overseas after serving three years as a dental officer in the U. S. Army.

Capt. Harrington saw action during 1944 and 1945, receiving the Bronze Star during the Battle of the Bulge last Christmas.

He resides at 67 Ashland street, Medford, with his wife and two children, Russell and Judith. Mrs. Harrington is the former Barbara Haley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul J. D. Haley of 333 Winthrop street, Medford.

Capt. Harrington graduated from Tufts Dental School in 1941 and interned at the Boston Dispensary. He has returned to civil practice, opening an office at 111 Salem street, Medford, in the Coolidge Building last week.

BETHANY LUNCHEON

The regular Bethany luncheon of the Second Congregational Church, was held last Tuesday. There were 125 served at the luncheon and many stayed on for the business meeting which followed.

Among the matters brought before the meeting was the question of the Society's pledge to the church for the coming year. It was decided to increase the pledge by $50, making it now $400. It was also the feeling of many of the members that at some later date they should set some money aside to aid War Victims.

The chairman for the day was Mrs. Fred Saunders of Cross street. Her committee was one of the largest yet, and testify both to her popularity as a leader and also to the splendid interest shown by all the women in the Society. The meeting adjourned at 3:45.

WOUBURN GAME ECHOES

The game for a postponed contest was very spirited and a corker to watch. Woburn had the best drilled club to show here in years, and the Tamers really made a game of it. Their tight packed line was easy for Hargreaves to reverse, and any sort of down field passing would have been disastrous for the Orange with the close up defense employed.

Woburn had a uniformed band and three white-uniformed drummajorettes, who weren't hard to look at, according to some of the front-row boys.

Just who they wanted them, only they know, but Woburn made a fight for them, and perhaps it is just as well. This is one snowy night it could well be a hard fight with a connection with high school sports.

Snowing down the local goalposts and other equipment on the field, including the snow-fence, was rather uncalculated for, to say the least, with Woburn on the short end of a 21-7 count. No one tried to hit the visiting fans, or a riot might have resulted with some one getting hurt or worse. And that would have been just too bad for the Winchester-Woburn game, a game both schools would hate to see discontinued.

The game was for the most part very cleanly, if roughly, played. A couple of Woburn boys gave Hargreaves "the business" right in front of the Winchester bench and one of the "white pants", but the official didn't see it. Probably had dust in his eyes.

Winchester surely didn't make much use of the boy that carried the mail against Reading, Belmont and Wakefield. Big John West has ripped to shreds far better lines than Woburn could boast, yet he was seldom called on. He carried only seven times the whole game, averaging three yards a try which is good going against what was often a nine man line.

Although he didn't see much action against Woburn, big Roger Latham, 6 ft. 4 in. tackle, made his presence felt in the Winchester line while he was in there. This big boy deserves a lot of credit for his spirit in staying on for football after being declared scholastically ineligible at the start of the season, the result of a mixup over being drafted. Latham was finally rejected and returned to school, only to find he did not have the necessary grades to play. He stuck out with the scrubs and kept in shape, playing in the last three games and giving a great all around exhibition at Wakefield. He deserves plenty of credit for his attitude.

For our money two of the most improved boys on the Winchester team are Bill Whittemore, center, and Parker Flagg, left guard. Bill has been first string all year and played good ball in the objective games. He has another year. Parker got his chance when Derrico came up with a heavy cold before one of the mid-season games and did so well he has been a fixture ever since. He has been very steady and local fans will regret that the Woburn game was his last for Winchester.

Only casually we heard of 15 year old Theresa McGowan of 1 Mt. Pleasant court, Woburn, who was pushed from the crowd of Woburn stands during the game and got a cut mouth and a shaking up. She was treated on the field by Dr. Daniel Joyce of Woburn and taken for further treatment to the Hospital by Patrolman Irving R. Arlon in a cruiser.

Bob Lybeck was among the missing, but Ken Hall who had made a fine line-man's mark for the game had his seat on the bench.

Lt. O'Connell and Sers. Charlie Harold and Joe Derrico were in charge of the big police detail and the Auxiliaries were out in force under Chief Bob Johnston. The field was kept nice and clear except for a bunch of kiddie playing a rugged game of scrab football between the halves in the center near the footbridge, right behind the broad backs of two of "the firsts".

Winchester's Asphalts have done a good job at all the home games this year. Those on duty were: Woburn game, Wm. Frank Madze, Stanley Barnes, Allen Lindblad, John McCarthy, Harry Goodwin, Dick Forno, Warren Gordin, Alvin Pave, Charlie Hart, Carl Thomas, Ralph Schadt, Roger McTigue, Robert Lowe and Joe Moffett.

A lot of rabid Winchester couldn't get putting in the scope of against Woburn, but Coach Knowlton has never been one to "rub it in", and he also knows the value of giving his reserves actual game experience. His system has paid off well and is the answer to

FORMER WINCHESTER GIRL MAINE BASKETBALL CHAIRMAN

Local Girls on Colby Honorary Team

Miss Joyce Maxson, a graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1941, and former girls basketball captain here, has just accepted the position of women's state basketball chairman for Maine. An excellent player herself and National Association official she is considered well qualified for the post.

Miss Maxson formerly lived on Church street and while at high school played on both the field hockey and tennis teams. She graduated from Bouve Boston School of Physical Education and received her BS degree from Columbia last June. She is now at Colby College, Waterville, Me., where she is assistant in the Physical Education Department. While at Columbia she played on the Weetse and Field Hockey and Lacrosse teams.

The Colby field hockey season was recently completed with a big program, in which 140 Colby girls participated. After the tournament, an honorary varsity team was chosen and list of interest that two Winchester girls were selected for positions. Muriel Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan F. Howard of Glen road, was picked for center halfback, and Martha Jackson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Jackson of Main street, for left halfback.

Selection of two girls placed Winchester second to Scarborough, N.Y., for the most students on the honorary team.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

The following list of Contagious Diseases was reported to the Board of Health for week ending Thursday, Nov. 29:
Chicken Pox 1
Dug Eye 1
Scarlet Fever 2
Wm. B. Macdonald, Agent

The Fire Department was called at 12:13 Monday afternoon by an alarm from Box 42 to the Beugs and Cobbs tannery on Swanton street where an electric motor went on fire on the ceiling of the beam house. There was little damage except to the motor. Woburn came down to the fire on the mutual aid system, and Arlington also sent apparatus to Winchester to "cover in".

WINCHESTER LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Atomic Lecture Tonight!

All residents of Winchester are invited to attend a lecture tonight at 8 P. M. at the Wyman School. Dr. Wendall H. Furry, physicist of Harvard University will speak on "The Split Atom in a Divided World." This timely and important event is sponsored by the Winchester College Club and the League of Women Voters. These organizations take this opportunity to thank the able ministers of Winchester for their announcements publicizing this lecture, also so thanks to Mr. Ralph Bonnell, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, for his kindness in speaking of it at the recent hearing on the Grade Crossing held in the town hall.

Every citizen realizes the importance of becoming an informed participant in today's government. Tonight's lecture will certainly answer many questions in layman's language on nuclear energy. A large attendance is expected due to the grave importance of this the world's newest scientific discovery.

LEPHANY MEN'S CLUB TO HEAR SLEEP NOIRIS

Wednesday, December 12 at 8 o'clock, in the parish library, the Men's Club in the parish of the Epiphany, will present a speaker and a subject of unusual interest, Mr. Forbes Norris, superintendent of Winchester public schools, discussing the future of our schools. Winchester hasn't forgot the startling judgment which an earnest critic made of this community a year ago: that better than average human stuff comes into Winchester cradles, and that in the next 14 or 18 years we turn this good human raw material into products that do not fulfill all that promise. In a meeting like this the three institutions most influential in shaping young personalities: meet the church, the homes, and the school. The three partners will have a chance to think of their respective interlocking parts in "the biggest job in the world," turning out first-rate people.

The committee which arranged the meeting consists of Mr. Henry Elton Metcalf, Mr. Dana Gorton, Mr. Howard P. Richardson, Mr. Maxwell Fish, Mr. Maxwell McCreery, and Captain Leslie Richardson.

All men of the parish are cordially urged to bring their friends, to meet Mr. Norris, to put their questions, and informally with him to talk things over.

1946 diaries are now on sale at the Stationers, Star Office Building.

Couples' Club Bean Supper
Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow night, Saturday, Dec. 8, at Netout Hall in the Unitarian Church, the Couples' Club will offer an old fashioned baked bean supper followed by a merry-go-round of games designed both to amuse and to let everybody meet friends and make new ones.

Supper will be served at 7 A. F. towards those who like Hearts can play Hearts, those who like Bridge can play Bridge, those who like Pit can play Pit, but the trick is that they are likely to find their traditional games change all of a sudden, that all unexpectedly they have a new and different partner. The plan is that at some time during the evening everybody will meet everybody else, and first names are required.

The Couples' Club, sponsored by the Unitarian Church but is open to all. An especial welcome is extended to couples new to Winchester. No reservations for the supper are necessary.

NAVAL OFFICERS
DISCHARGED

Two Winchester Naval officers, Lt. Ivar M. Olson of 30 Prince Avenue and Lt. (jg) George B. Redding of 18 Cranston road, were released from duty in the United States Navy at Boston on Dec. 4.

Lt. Olson, former high school football player, served 44 months in the Navy being last stationed at the Amphibious Base at Little Creek, Va. Previously he had 13 months with the amphibious forces in the Pacific Theatre.

Lt. Redding, last serving as communications officer on the USS, Eugene E. Elmore, had 30 months of duty in the American, European and Pacific Theatres.

JOINT MEETING NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Martha Sharp, formerly a member of the staff of the Unitarian Service Committee and now associated with American Relief for Czechoslovakia, will address a joint meeting of the Women's Alliance and Men's Club of the Unitarian Church on Friday, December 14, 1945, at 8:30 in the evening in Metcalf Hall.

Mrs. Sharp has recently returned from a survey trip through Czechoslovakia and while there had the opportunity, not only to visit many of the cities and a good part of the countryside, but also to confer with President Beres and other of the officials of the country. She has brought back an up-to-the-minute report of the desperate conditions in the devastated areas there.

Prior to the entry of the United States into the war, Mrs. Sharp with her husband were the only Americans sent to Czechoslovakia to aid the 250,000 refugees driven out of the Sudetenland as a result of the Munich Agreement.

At the invitation of the Czech government, Mrs. Sharp established an emergency office for refugees through which over 3,000 families were helped to emigrate to all parts of the world. In 1941, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp learned of the mass starvation of thousands of refugees who had fled to the south of France in the last days before the armistice, and they organized and carried through a milk project to feed the children of the refugees under two years of age in the Basques Pyrennes in France. She continued her emigration work in France, finding lost people, aiding stranded Americans and getting refugees out of internment camps.

Mrs. Sharp is a graduate of Pembroke College, Brown University, and holds a master's degree from Radcliffe College.

CAPACITY CROWD HEARS
REV. CARY

Last Tuesday evening at the Second Congregational Church a capacity crowd thrilled to the stories told by Rev. Cary about his three year interment by the Japanese. He told many stories of the hardships which were declared, how utterly inadequate our defenses were—and the hopelessness of the situation.

The dinner which preceded Rev. Cary's address, was under the able direction of Mrs. Earle Baker and Mrs. Foster, both of whom were assisted by the Young People of the Church. The affair was the first of a series of parish dinners, which is hoped will be of interest not simply to members of the congregation, but to the community as a whole.

LINCOLN SCHOOL DAD'S NIGHT

The annual Dad's Night of the Lincoln School was held on Wednesday, Dec. 5.

A large group was in attendance and were entertained by our Joseph Phippen, well known Winchester musician, who played his own arrangement of the Sextet from Luciano Chopin's Waltz and Solitude, the latter being played entirely with the left hand. Mr. Phippen, who is 88 years of age astonished those present by his dexterity.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris gave a very interesting talk on "Better Schools for Winchester" which was favorably received by the group.

The table was attractively decorated with Christmas decorations and refreshments were served by a committee in charge of Mrs. George Johnson.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Winchester Girl Scout Council has been very fortunate in securing the appointment of Mrs. Barbara Metcalf as part-time executive secretary, a position left vacant by the recent resignation of Miss Natalie Stanfield. Mrs. Metcalf, for some time a member of the Melrose Girl Scout Council, is now dividing her time between Winchester and Reading where she does similar work. She will be in the Girl Scout office Tuesday and Thursday from nine o'clock until five. If any who have set aside clothing for the destitute people of France find it more convenient, they may leave it at the office on those days instead of waiting for the Girl Scouts to collect it.

On November 28 Troop 10 had a party for their mothers at the Baptist Church. The following girls became members of the troop: Gertrude Barry, Clare Kelly, Betty Ann Detoursey, Patricia Harold and Jean Sullivan. The girls signed up for Bird Study and a singing group. Mrs. Robert, the Girl Scout Commissioner, spoke of the unity of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides all over the world.

"Our party was Troop 10's first birthday. There are fifty-one girls registered in the Troop."

"PAYSAN" HOME

Mario "Payzan" Marrone of 58 Swanton street, former manager of the Winchester Cubs Baseball team, returned to Winchester Wednesday afternoon, having been honorably discharged from the Army.

"Payzan" returned to this country from France on the E. B. Alexander, which docked last week Thursday in New York. He went to Camp Kilmer in New Jersey and to Fort Devens before coming home.

"Payzan" got around overseas, serving with the 10th Armored Division, the 80th Infantry and the 66th Field Artillery. He handled all sorts of sport teams, among them a championship soft ball team, of all things. Can you hear me, you old Cubs?"

In planning for veal in the meal a good many home food buyers are in the habit of not thinking much further than veal roasts or chops. But veal has other cuts to offer—cuts which may be less well known but, nevertheless, are just as desirable, if properly prepared. An idea as to what can be done toward injecting variety into the menu with veal is set forth by the recipes given above. There are, of course, many other cuts of veal and many possibilities in their preparation that may be used to advantage.

VICTORY LOAN BONDS PROVE SOUND FOR ALL

By T. R. GAMBLE
National Director, War Finance Division, U. S. Treasury

The Victory Loan, now under way, is a sound investment for all Americans. It is a loan that will pay interest and principal at the end of the war. It is a loan that will pay interest and principal at the end of the war. It is a loan that will pay interest and principal at the end of the war.

Why is this money needed? Briefly, the reasons may be summarized as follows: To bring our very best home and give them their money back. To maintain our army of 10,000,000 men. To take care of our sick and wounded veterans. To make proper settlements of our war debts. To pay the cost of our war effort.

Ted R. Gamble, director, and for their services during the next few months.

The Budget Bureau recently estimated total Federal expenditures for the 1946 fiscal year at $66.4 billion, or $37.7 billion below 1945. Receipts were estimated at $36 billion, or $37.7 billion below 1945. The new tax bill, this leaves a deficit of $30.4 billion, which must be met by Treasury borrowing. It is in order to help meet this deficit that the Treasury decided on the Victory Loan, the last big public drive for funds.

As we enter this Victory Loan, I'd like to review briefly the accomplishments of our war financing program. From May 1, 1941, when the program started, to October 1, 1945, we raised the huge sum of $207 billion. Furthermore, we raised this money through a plan of voluntary savings at the lowest interest cost of any nation engaged in the war, and at the lowest selling expense ever recorded.

In the first seven war loan drives, we set total quotas of $95 billion for all investors, and sold $35,740,000,000 in war loan bonds. Every loan was oversubscribed. Billions more were sold in the interim periods between drives. We have sold these bonds to more than 85,000,000 Americans. By the time this loan is over, we will have sold one billion individual pieces of the popular Series E bonds alone.

Where did this money come from? Our figures show that individuals provided the Treasury with $19 billion net out of the $38 billion in new funds that has become available to them since May 1, 1941—and most of the remainder went into cash savings or commercial bank accounts. Insurance companies and savings banks invested all of the $22 billion in new funds that they received. State and local governments invested $3 billion of the $8 billion available. Private corporations had $19 billion of new funds in current surplus and we obtained $28 billion of it. Most of the remainder was needed by them for expanded wartime operations. Federal agencies and trust funds invested all of their $17 billion of new funds in government securities.

In short, up to the end of the Seventh War Loan, non-bank investors provided the government with $12 billion net of the $307 billion it had to borrow since May 1, 1941, the balance of $85 billion being absorbed by commercial Federal Reserve banks, most of it in open market purchases. Except for the investment of a limited portion of their savings deposits, we have not permitted the banks to subscribe directly to war loan securities in the last five war bond drives, nor in the current Victory Loan.

One of the most significant achievements of our program is the widespread distribution of the public debt. Millions of people who never before saved a penny in their lives, now own savings bonds. It is estimated that three-quarters of the Series E bonds sold to individuals were acquired by persons earning $5000 a year or less. Today, individuals hold almost one-fourth of the total Federal debt outstanding. An even larger proportion of the interest paid out on this debt will go to individuals. Obviously, this will have a tremendous impact on post-war life.

MANAGEMENT UNIONS?

Managers, supervisors, foremen—will they organize into Unions—A. I. O. A. F. of L. or what have you?

Why not everyone join a Union?

Few men in America own any business themselves outright, so why not all join a Union? Business is but the savings of all the people. (Savings Banks, Commercial Banks, Insurance Companies, Investments, etc.)

Well, when every worker, manager, supervisor, and foreman joins a Union, who will the "fight" be with or do the Unions intend to prohibit the technically trained (who make the jobs) from joining?

When everyone joins a union, there will be no use for Unions for the only "fight" then will be to divide what little there is left. No Manager, supervisor, or foreman will be satisfied to struggle for the same conditions for which the untrained struggle.

Well, here we are! Let's all join a Union, then we can all earn our living by taking in each other's washing—with no need to study, struggle, and train—just celebrate some holidays of 365 days—stay home—call the whole thing off.

In Russia, Management gets higher wages in comparison than in America—and Labor gets vastly less.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

Christmas Meeting

The Christmas meeting of the Fortnightly Singing Society was held on Monday afternoon at the Unitarian Parish House with coffee served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Kenneth B. Huse, Mrs. William E. Priest, Mrs. Paul G. Eberle and Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee presided. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. William Martens and Mrs. Francis C. Bowes.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Vincent Churnish and Mrs. Alfred G. Nelson, the music and drama committees gave a beautiful and inspiring presentation of "Christmas in Song and Pageantry." Much credit for the artistry of the program was due to Mrs. Henry A. Hall, the author and narrator.

A series of eight tableaux depicting the Birth of Christ were as follows: The Annunciation, The Dream of Joseph, The Nativity, The Shepherds, The Wise Men, Shepherds at the Manger, The East at Manger, The East at Manger, The East at Manger. The tableaux were acted by Mrs. Dana J. Kelly, Joseph; Mrs. Joan R. Wells, Mary; Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee, Angel Gabriel.

Mrs. Charles W. Mock, Shepherds; Mrs. Louise J. Huse, Wise Men; Mrs. Henry G. Bigelow, Mrs. Foster F. Burley, Mrs. Clinton S. Hall, Angels; Gail Collins, Linda Witham, Janet Chaffee, Stephen Hersey.

Soloist, Mrs. Joy Eldredge. The Fortnightly Singers, ably directed by Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham, with Mrs. Lucy Wilcox, Cashman as accompanist, sang a number of lovely Christmas carols. Those singing were: Miss Mary A. Hyde, and Mesdames Whitelaw Wright, Charles R. Green, William C. Hultgren, Aram T. Mouradian, Blanche S. Barnard, Walter W. Winship, Gordon Bird, Henry K. Fitts, James A. Cullen, Ernest J. Wright and Mrs. Herbert S. Gardner, soloists. Appreciation is extended to the pleasing decorations and to Mesdames Michael H. Huston, S. S. Roy, A. Burr, Frank D. Madge, Irving E. Gamage, who assisted in providing costumes.

Gratitude is again expressed to Rev. Paul H. Chapman and church members who so graciously offered the excellent facilities of Mercantile Hall to the Fortnightly Singing Society.

Community Sing
On Monday evening, Dec. 21 at 7:15 p. m. the annual Christmas Eve Sing will be held around the Christmas Tree on the Common. The singing will be led by Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham with Mr. T. Parker Clarke, trombone. Everyone is heartily urged to join in this community project sponsored by the Fortnightly Singing Society.

Clothing Collection
The attention of The Fortnightly Singing Society is called to the fact that the collection of warm clothing and shoes made from Jan. 7 to 31, Mrs. Sylvia A. Burr and her Social Service Committee will act for The Fortnightly Singing Society.

27 HOOPMEN SURVIVE SQUAD CUT

After a series of basket ball attitude tests and several scrimmage sessions, Coach Henry Knowlton has limited his squad to 27 of the original 67 who answered the opening roll call. Captain Pat Patterson, Twiggie Nolan, Roger Latham, Dean Blanchard, and John West are currently working as a unit, but immediately behind them are Sammy Bellino, Jim Olivier, Mario Buzzotta, Ed Hicks, and Sam Tibauda ready to fill in for any or all of the first group. Other groupings show Dan Maffeo, Jerry Errico, Allan Switzer, Joe Amico, and Ken Jackson; Dick Young, Dick Hills, Arthur Howard, Dominic Jacobellis, Dave Sargent, John Hopkins, and Ed Amico; and youngsters R. Zirkel, W. Zirkel, Ken B. Donaghey, Paul Roche, and Bob McGrath.

Patterson, Nolan, Latham, and Tibauda are seniors, 12 are Juniors, seven are sophomores, and four are freshmen.

The Red and Black will oppose Newton on the latter's court on Tuesday, December 18 and will be in fine fettle to meet the Alumni on the local surface on Friday, December 21. The former high scoring Kenny Wright and Charley Murphy promise plenty of action and a close tussle.

CHRISTMAS MOVIES AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The library is again fortunate this year to have the moving picture, "Scrooge". On Friday, Dec. 21 there will be two showings—at 2:30 in the afternoon and again at 7:30 in the evening. Reserved sections will be set aside for adults (who do not need tickets) for both performances. Children must have tickets.

On Saturday morning at 10:15 a special Christmas program of moving pictures will be shown for the young children. Tickets for both days will be available in the Boys' and Girls' Library beginning Monday, Dec. 17.

W. H. S. PUPILS AVERAGED WELL IN COLLEGE BOARD EXAMS

According to the 45th annual report of the College Entrance Examination Board, pupils of Winchester High School scored rather well in comparison with other high school averages and with private school averages. The following table recently released by Acting Principal Samuel M. Graves gives some interesting figures in the results of last April's examinations:

Average Scores
Private Schools	Boys
Verbal	506
Mathematical	543
English	530
Social Studies	532
French Reading	528
Mathematics	545

Public Schools
Boys	Girls
Verbal	498
Mathematical	499
English	504
Social Studies	529
French Reading	515

Verbal	513 (8)
Mathematical	489 (8)
English	536 (4)
Social Sci.	558 (4)
French Read.	545 (8)

A top score on any test would be 600, rather than the customary 400 as used in school grading systems.

The Winchester Auxiliary of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals reports a busy November for our Animal Shelter. Fifty-three animals were given the careful attention each one needed, and forty-eight ambulance trips made covering three hundred and fifty miles by auto. During the past month a motorist in the vicinity of Willwood Cemetery found an injured rabbit about midnight, and he picked it up, brought it to the Shelter where it was found he was so badly injured, it was necessary to put him to sleep, which was humanely done. It is many acts of kindnesses like this that enable societies of this kind to relieve untold suffering.

GROSBEAKS IN WINCHESTER

Bird lovers will be interested in the fact that a family of five Pine Grosbeaks are in Winchester on the premises of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Murdock, 4 Robinson road, off Westland ave. The family consists of an adult male and female and three young.

Ordinarily Grosbeaks are found in this region only when there is a scarcity of the normal crop of cones in Canada, which occurs once in every half dozen years or so. The adult male at the Murdock's seems much brighter in his plumage than is usually pictured.

The Grosbeaks, which are quite tame, have been eating seeds out of crab apples, and the red berries from yew shrubs with soft red berries on other shrubbery. They come right up to the windows of the house in quest of food and really put on quite a show, having become quite tame.

FILENE'S NEW STORE INSPECTED BY PERSONNEL

Filene's opened its newly remodeled and enlarged Winchester store to officials and members of the sales force last Friday evening for their inspection. Executives from the main store in Boston and from its branch shops, together with the sales force, attended the opening and enjoyed a buffet supper, inspection of the various departments and were treated to a musical program.

About 150 were present, including Mr. A. Lincoln Filene with members of his family, Mr. H. H. Houghton, general manager of Filene's, and other officials.

It had been hoped to hold an official public opening of the new store at an earlier date, but delay in obtaining fixtures and their installation, made it necessary to omit such a program. Winchester people, already acquainted with the new enlargement, have been gratifying in their response.

Filene's Winchester store is the off-ice management of Miss Ruth Thayer. She will be pleased to extend invitations to Filene's patrons, and friends.

Thanking those who sent their money in early Mrs. Bode stated that the committee felt that many others have put off making their contributions at this time and that this is why the 1945 returns are trailing now.

CHRISTMAS EVE CAROL SINGING

On Monday, Dec. 24, at 7:15 p. m. all the people of Winchester are urged to gather around the Christmas tree on the Common and join in singing Christmas carols.

Singing will be led by Mrs. Mary Rantow Witham and a group of fine voices, and the decorations will be furnished by Mr. T. Parker Clarke, trombonist.

The hour of 7:15 has finally been selected, in the hope that it will prove convenient for the largest number of people. The Fortnightly Music Committee, Mrs. Virginia Girardin, chairman, is sponsoring the project, and churches and other town organizations are co-operating. A very large attendance is hoped for and anticipated.

On this first Christmas since the end of the war, let us all join together in prayer and thanksgiving to God for our great victory and for the hope of lasting peace. There is happiness on earth today in many homes, and joyous carols spring unbidden from the heart. In other homes there is sorrow and comforting anxiety, but in these also there will be a peace of mind, a peace of heart, a peace of faith in the Christmas hope of peace on earth, good will to men.

As usual yesterday's meeting of the Rotary Club of Winchester was a full gathering numbering almost 100 persons. Three visitors were recorded. President Vincent Ambrose named his new program committee as including Charles Howe, Allen Kimball and Don Lewis, and Nate Nichols gave a very complete report of the recent governors meeting. A visiting vote of appreciation was given caterer Emil Beauchamp in recognition of his excellent lunches. Ernest Dade was the winner of the Wan Bond, and an interesting program of moving pictures was presented.

DOWNING—LYNCH

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place at St. Charles Rectory in Woburn Saturday afternoon, Dec. 8, when Miss Kathleen Charlotte Lynch, daughter of Mr. Patrick T. Lynch of Scott street, Woburn, became the bride of Warren Sumner Downing, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Downing of Plymouth, N. H. Rev. John Murphy officiated at the 5 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a small reception for the immediate families at the home of the bride's father.

Miss Lynch was attended by her sister, Miss Eileen B. Lynch of Woburn and James E. Lynch of Woburn, brother of the bride, as best man.

The bride wore a gown of beige and brown with matching hat and a corsage of green orchids. The bridesmaid wore turquoise blue with matching hat and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Downing and his bride will make their home at 60 Central street in Stoughton. The bride is widely known in Winchester, having been associated as bookkeeper with H. A. Tarbox, electrician, on Shore road. Mr. Downing is associated with the Boston Edison Company.

WINCHESTER LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Atomic Lecture

On Dec. 7 the Winchester College and the League of Women Voters presented Dr. Wendell H. Furry, Harvard physicist speaking on "The Split Atom in a World of War." The weather was far from good and the many people who attended showed the interest in the subject by standing with the town's six year planning program.

Dr. Furry holds the true scientific viewpoint that this new force will certainly change our entire way of life. "An age of plenty is literally at hand. Nuclear physics has before it the possibility of raising the standard of living of the world to a level where people will no longer see to their non-essential needs and see to it that effective controls are established, there will be a dramatic increase in the standard of living. Dr. Furry stressed the fact that there was no real secret at the atomic bomb. 'The American people have a right to know and express their views of decisions to make.'"

HEARING ON GINN PROPERTY

The Board of Appeal held a hearing Tuesday evening upon the petition of the Trustees of the Ginn Estate to make a temporary use of the Ginn property at 35 Bacon street, without storing or enlarging, for the purpose of furnishing lodgings to more than four persons, in violation of the town's Zoning By-Laws.

Several persons attended the hearing which continued for about two hours. Judge Franklin T. Hammond appeared for the Trustees, stating that the house is to be used, if the petition is granted, by seven couples, whom he intimates might be service people.

Judge Hammond stressed the difficulty of finding living accommodations at present, and felt that the use of the Ginn property for this purpose would help in this respect. He also voiced the trustees' concern over having the property left with the attendant expense.

While no particular opposition was voiced at the meeting, several questions were raised. One was in the event the petition is granted, and if the property changes hands, would the permit extend to cover the new owner or owners. Another was how would the persons living in the premises be gotten out and where would they go at the expiration of the permit, which under the petition would be for not more than two years.

A third question was how a third granting this permit affect the Board of Appeal in considering further petitions of the same nature.

MOVE FOR STADIUM LAUNCHED

Plans Shown at Meeting of Department Heads

What is hoped to be the first step in a movement to provide Winchester High School with a suitable place for inter-school football was taken Monday evening when plans for a stadium were presented to a meeting of the department heads called by the Planning Board in connection with the town's six year planning program.

Robert F. Guild, former Harvard football player and coach was invited to appear at the meeting and outline to the members plans in which he and a number of others are interested to provide a stadium for high school football in Winchester. Mr. Guild discussed the matter with the department heads present and showed them architects' plans of a proposed stadium, drawn by Leslie Stewart of this town, a Winchester High School and Tufts Engineering graduate. Two plans were presented one to cost $50,000 and the other $100,000.

The meeting evinced a lively interest in the project, and it seemed to be the general opinion that something should be done, and soon, to provide suitable facilities for high school sports.

It was also the meeting's opinion that the subject had too many angles to be considered generally by the entire group of department heads. As a consequence it was the consensus that the matter be considered specifically by a committee of two members, each from the Selectmen, Park Commissioners, School Committee and Planning Board.

This committee will study the problem of site, cost and layout with the idea of submitting its findings to the town meeting in March, and possibly making some specific recommendations at that time.

William L. Parsons, chairman of the Planning Board, told the Star that the committee is authorized to decide any of the problems involved in the proposed plan to erect a stadium. He does, however, feel that the matter is sufficiently urgent to warrant study by the "unofficial" committee established at Monday evening's meeting. Further believing that study and possible recommendations by this committee can save valuable time in arriving at definite action at town meeting in March.

Ensign William E. Ramsdell, Jr., son of Rep. and Mrs. William E. Ramsdell of Summit avenue, is now attached to the troop transport, Zetula Piko, operated by the American Hawaiian Steamship Company between France and the United States.

NEW PUBLIC LIBRARY

It is reported that plans are being made for a new Public Library for the Town to be located on the corner of the railroad and the highway. The plans are being drawn by the architect, and it is expected that the new building will be completed in 1947. If this is correct, it means that the "Great Hall" of Winchester is assured.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Before very many fleeting days have passed into history the merry greeting "Merry Christmas!" will be upon every lip and the feeling of goodwill which gives birth to this altruistic will be found long deep in every heart.

During the last four years Christmas has come during the trials of conflict and none of us were in a mood to be merry but now, that we have returned to an era of peace, the cards and rhymes of Christmastide will thrill our hearts once more.

While planning for this most sacred and happy occasion we should not lose sight of the fact that many of our boys left their homes to fight overseas so that we might enjoy the blessings of freedom and the comfort of our happy homes.

Many of these heroes made the supreme sacrifice, many others have returned to their homes and loved ones, while still others are confined in hospitals while seeking to recover from gas injuries sustained in battle.

Remembering that "It is more blessed to give than to receive," perhaps our Christmas will be brighter and our appreciation more evident if we send a gift to some boy in a hospital to make his day more joyful. Contact your local Red Cross for suggestions and further details.

FRANCIS I. KEENAN

Francis I. Keenan of 21 Brookside avenue died Wednesday morning, Dec. 12, at his home after a long illness.

Mr. Keenan was the son of James Henry and Margaret (Madden) Keenan. He was born July 21, 1880, in Cambridge, receiving his education in the Cambridge schools and at Rindge Technical School. He came to Winchester 20 years ago from Cambridge and had since made his home here, being held in high esteem by all who knew him.

For more than 35 years, Mr. Keenan was an appraiser, traveling for insurance firms. He was for a time with the National Appraisal Company of Boston and the Factory Appraisal Company of Haverhill, Conn. Most of his business life, however, was spent with the Manufacturers' Appraisal Company of Philadelphia.

On Jan. 9, 1911, Mr. Keenan married Henrietta McCombie of Spangler, Pa., who survives, with two daughters, Mrs. Regina G. Sweeney, and Mrs. Agnes M. Keenan, both of Winchester; two sons, Major James H. Keenan, USAF, of North Hollywood, Cal., now on terminal leave, and Francis Howard Keenan, discharged from the Coast Artillery last fall after service in the ETO; and a granddaughter, Joan Sweeney.

The funeral was held this Friday morning from the late residence with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at 10 o'clock. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden.

INSUFFICIENT COVERAGE

Blanket coverage is not always what it should be on windy nights. However, when "blanket" is applied to an insurance policy it is certain to provide very complete coverage. Such policies as the Comprehensive Personal Liability Policy and the Personal Property Floater Policy are typical of the modern trend towards blanket, "all-risk" coverage. By substituting these and other forms for several outmoded types of specific coverage, insurance programs can be simplified and greatly strengthened. This agency is fully prepared to make suggestions along these and other lines, after surveying your particular needs. Call this agency today for a free insurance survey.

World travelers have sought out Penang for half a century, regarding it in a class with Tahiti, Martique and Bali as a tropic almost to be missed. Many round-the-world junkies, left their steamers at Penang and took the Malay railway down the peninsula to Singapore, there to go aboard again. The island is especially beautiful in the northern part, where a range of mountains 2,500 feet high rises from the sea. A ridge of hills cuts through the central area. The rest of Penang's 110 square miles is fairly level, and largely forested.

The city, containing a majority of the 247,000 prowling islanders, lies at the foot of the mountains, on the southeast corner, the point nearest the mainland a mile and a half away. It has a magnificent railway station on a road, passengers going ashore had a shore of excellent hotels, clubs, stores, and shops to patronize.

More than half the slaves are Chinese. In normal times the city's harbor teems with strange Chinese junkies, steamers, and sampans. Malay boats, invariably large, are painted on the bow. Large European steamers tied up along the main street, as a Bornean steamer, going ashore had a shore of excellent hotels, clubs, stores, and shops to patronize.

The Chinese market was like a different world. Bellies carried a variety of restaurants on their backs; if they got an order they set up their paraphernalia prepared the meal and served it then and there. itinerant barbers wandered through the throng, likewise serving customers wherever they appeared. They not only shaved their clients, but also carefully cleaned their faces and scraped their tongues. In the Chinese theater attendants went about wiping the perspiring faces of spectators—all with the same towel.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB

FORMAL

The traditional Evergreen Xmas Formal dance held last Friday by the Wednesday Night Club in Park Hall more than came up to expectations. Seventy couples attended.

The stage setting was an old-fashioned snow scene—cottages surrounded by stately evergreens with a snow man in the yard. Wreaths and candles adorned the windows all this with a blazing fire in the fireplace and soft lighting made a beautiful background for the music and dancing to Ken Reeves Orchestra. During intermission four couples from the choir carrying lanterns sang several very old Christmas Carols and delicious punch was served.

The dessert parties before the dance in various homes proved most successful. Many old friendships were renewed and new ones begun. It was a pleasure to have so many of our returned servicemen and their happy wives with us again.

The planning and co-operation of all committees—dessert parties, decorations, music and refreshments—made this dance a memorable occasion.

MARY ABBY J. POTTER

Friends and acquaintances of Mary Abby J. Potter of Wakefield, formerly of Winchester, will be shocked and saddened to learn of her sudden death on Sunday morning, December 16, at the home of her brother, George B. Potter, 10 West Water Street, Wakefield.

Her passing was most unexpected. On Saturday she engaged in her usual activities, busy and happy with Christmas preparations, and apparently in excellent health.

Born in Peabody, Mass., the daughter of Charles Henry and Susan Potter, she was educated in the Peabody schools and attended the Emerson College of Oratory.

Miss Potter had made her home for many years with her brother, living at various times in Peabody, Melrose, on Stone Avenue in Winchester, and in Wakefield.

She was particularly well-known in Winchester Highlands, where even after moving to Wakefield, she continued a loyal, active member of the Bethany and Missionary Societies of the Second Congregational Church.

She leaves, besides her brother, two nephews, G. Dean Potter, past in the A. F. Weather Service, and Norman D. Potter, Lt. (jg) in the Maritime Service.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. Austin R. E. at the West Water Street residence on Tuesday, at 2 o'clock. Interment was at Harmony Grove Cemetery in Salem.

Miss Potter will be greatly missed. Her kindly modest disposition, her friendly spirit, her generosity and unselfishness, and her keen quiet humor and ready wit, had won for her the affection of all who knew her.

JAMES R. PATRICK

James R. Patrick of 15 Locke street died suddenly early Tuesday morning, Dec. 18, at his home following an attack of heart disease.

Mr. Patrick was born Oct. 17, 1880, in St. John, N. B. He came to this country as a young man 35 years ago, and for nearly 20 years had been a resident of Winchester, coming to this town from Arlington. He was employed by Hammett's manufacturers of school supplies, at their Cambridge factory.

Mr. Patrick leaves his wife, Mrs. Blanche L. (Lezette) Patrick; a brother, Hugh, living in St. John, N. B.; and five sisters, Mrs. George Beanson of this town, Mrs. Colonel A. A. Norris of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. John L. Reed of Lynn, Mrs. Nicholas Pole of Cornwall, Eng., and Mrs. Elsie Crawford of St. John, N. B.

The funeral will be held this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in Medford with Rev. Alexander Henderson officiating. Interment will be in Wildwood Cemetery.

teachers with the latest developments as well as to help teachers to meet various needs of their personal retirement planning. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Mabel Lundy, President; Mrs. William Schmitt, Vice-President; Mrs. A. Doherty, Third Grade Teacher at Newton School; Mrs. Margaret J. SUPERB PAGEANT BY TORNIGHTLY

The Christmas Pageant presented by the Fellowship for the handicapped, in the Parish House of the Unitarian Church, last Sunday afternoon, was a superb performance. The costumes and settings for the "Living Nativity" were exceptional in every respect. The Christmas Spirit was created by the Fellowship Chorus and a host of people was unusually well suited to fit perfectly each scene. The reader, pianist, director and cast and the members of the chorus all worked together in such perfect unity that everyone present thought of the pageant as a whole and not as a series of scenes. The Christmas Spirit of goodwill was enhanced by the presence of so many from all the various churches and town organizations making it a truly community gathering. Many expressed the hope that the presentation of a pageant for the community by the Fellowship might be the forerunner of a new Town Christmas Pageant.

TWO CALLS FOR FIREMEN
SUNDAY NIGHT

The Fire Department answered two alarms in the freezing temperature and biting wind of Sunday night, fortunately neither being for a serious fire.

Box 542 came in at 9:02 P. M. for a chimney fire at the home of Mr. Herbert Baldwin, 5 Ardley place. Box 33 came in at 10:50 when smoke was discovered on the top floor of the apartments at 7 Lewis road and a small like something burning was discovered there.

The firemen found upon arrival that some paper had been accidentally set afire in the sink of a second floor apartment, the smoke and smell going quickly up the pipe holes into the apartment above. The burning paper had been pitched into the backyard and there really was no need for the firemen's services. And they were by no means sorry.

Chief Storekeeper William D. Sullivan, USNR, former teller at the Winchester National Bank arrived home on leave Dec. 13 after service in the Philippines and Japan.

ICE HOCKEY

With good skating conditions coming a little earlier than in some years, the Winchester High School ice hockey team has made a very good start toward the third year of varsity hockey. Practices have been held on Winter Pond and Wedge Pond, with the boys going through conditioning work.

Coach Larry Palmer is more than pleased with the enthusiasm of the 62 boys who have signed up for this rugged sport. Capt. Don Armstrong, Dave Morrow, Bob Wilson, Scott Doh, Al Ulrich and Bob Spang, all last year lettermen, and seven boys, who gained plenty of experience last year, will probably see action in the first game of the season. This opener will be with Waterbury at the Skating Club on Soldier's Field, Cambridge, on Dec. 26 at 6:15 p. m. It is expected that a large number of spectators will take advantage of this indoor game to watch the local boys.

A Junior Varsity team is being developed this year and it is hoped that we will play many games. With the large amount of material they should do very well as a team in connection with other JV's and possibly small school varsity teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hansen (Dorothy Fancie) of 28 Crescent road, Bedford, are the parents of twin boys, Charles Arthur and Robert Everett, born Dec. 15 at the Winchester Hospital.

Phone Mel. 0282NEW CURLING RINK AT COUNTRY CLUBOne of Two Hereabouts, It Was Put in Use Saturday

Winchester Country Club's new curling rink, one of two hereabouts was opened last Saturday afternoon with informal matches replacing those originally planned. The new ice being deemed not quite fast enough for regular play.

This doesn't mean that the curlers were not out in force, or that there wasn't any good curling, but the ice was just a bit on the "sticky" side and not quite thick enough for the regular intra club matches in which there is red hot interest among the devotees.

Aside from the rink at The Country Club in Brookline, the curlers had to travel to Nashua, N. H., to the Country Club there, to find another rink. The Nashua rink is of one sheet dimensions and is covered. Winchester's rink is three sheets, or courses, to a sheet, and is as yet exposed to the elements, and how! The Star reporter who went over for last Saturday's opening, sort of a "try-out" for the "covered rink" idea, especially if the rink is heated. Your reporter needs to be a hardy fellow indeed to long withstand the rigors of outdoor curling on a day like last Saturday.

Winchester's new rink is 145 feet long and 45 feet wide, accommodating three sheets, or courses, with concrete circles called "houses" at either end of each. Constructed of bituminous concrete, it is quite shallow, formed something like a cooking pan with slanting sides to hold even, usually about four inches of ice, frozen to the bottom of the rink. The rink cost more than $2500, and was paid for by private subscription on the part of curlers in the Country Club. Incidentally it is quite a tribute to the popularity of a game to have those who play it willing to do during the time of 2500 of the best to provide facilities, or shall we say, better facilities.

For Winchester has had curling these many years, the late Bowen Tufts is credited with introducing the game here back in 1927, and there has been uninterrupted curling locally since that year.

Until the new rink was built, however, Winchester depended on the pond on the club property, which was much more than the mere eye of the elements than this new rink. Never have the club curlers been able to curl as early as the Dec. 15 date on which they were in action on the new rink.

The rink is lighted by nine overhead lights for night curling, and plans call for the eventual housing of the rink and providing both freezing and heating equipment. The rink would be most interesting in the latter refinement.

In addition to the rinks at The Country Club, Winchester and Nashua, there are rinks at Schenectady, Troy and St. Andrews, N. Y., the latter being the oldest golf club in the country. Winchester has sent team to compete in bonnets at all these clubs as well as to the international meetings in Canada. Local curlers have been improving with competition and last year's curling season of curling. The Skating Club, at The Country Club. The handsome trophy is now resting at the Country Club and is much admired by all observers, a touch of reverence tinged the admiration of all curlers when they gaze upon and float over it.

These curling hombros are a rugged lot. In last Saturday's bitter cold there were a few windbreakers worn as a slight concession to the weather, and some of the boys wore golfshirts. One for cap was apparent, chiefly because his wearer was a tall feller, and Frank Lane had on a sheep-lined sweater.

For the most part, however, the devotees of this ancient Scottish game, older than golf, according to "Charles" LeRoy, a curler, seemed to be the authority at last Saturday's meeting) wore easy fitting sport jackets over light sweaters, the hardly laddies!

And their headgear was something to see, ranging all the way from "Gee" Neely's deep-blue "Pat McGorrie" through multi-hued kilts to those of the real "Hielan" variety, tams, glengarrs and what-have-you. We frankly wouldn't know, but "Steve" Neely had on a feathered number that has to be seen to be believed and Fritz Craven and "Doc" Davis also had natty models with red ribbons on top.

Most of the Scottish toppers were bristled thickly with metal pins, from bonspiels in which their owners had participated, for "Charles" was quick to explain that the medals didn't especially signify their wearers had won anything as a consequence. In curling you get a medal if you play, and you ought to!

You should at least get honorable mention if you can understand what the curlers are talking about. We heard such expressions as "Wick it!" "A good guard!" "A counter, perhaps!" "An wide, two wide." "More ice!" "Watch the house!" "Try for the port!" "Not over the house!" "Nicely laid off boy!" "Good stone, Doc!" "Your in the back of the house!" and the like. It's really quite a game, this curling, and we'd like mighty well to see R. P. Teele and, say, Arthur Teele in a "house" of a dozen ends or so, with Willie McLaughlin as "skip". There's a lot in this "skip" business. He's the chap who tells the boys whether to "sweep" or keep their "horns up." Bill would love that!

HOME FROM CHOATE

Charles "Sarto" Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Walsh of 11 Maxwell road, is home for the Christmas vacation from Choate School, Wallingford, Conn. "Sarto", captain of last year's Winchester High School football team, played football at Choate this fall being the team's high scorer with seven touchdowns, scoring in every game. He played tailback at Choate. Instead of blocking back as he did at high school, Weirich 155 now, he was one of the big boys in the Choate backfield.

TO ENTER B. U.

The Star is informed that two of the big boys on this year's football team at high school, Roy Latham and Fran "Head" Herlihy, will enter Boston University another fall. Latham is the taller of the two, at 6 ft. 4 in. Herlihy's 215 pounds give him about a 10 pound pull in the weights. Both should be welcome additions to the B. U. squad. Incidentally, Latham, who was scholastically mediocre early in the fall, just missed the honor roll by a single subject when the last marks were out. Both boys played tackle though Herlihy has also played guard and Latham, end.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party for members of the Mystic Glee Club was held last Monday evening at the home of Mr. Carl Wood, club president. The hilarity, laughter and songs, which were prevalent for the entire evening, were in direct contrast to that which normally prevails over the club's usual weekly rehearsals. Impromptu skits presented by various small groups within the club highlighted the evening's entertainment.

The chairman for this year's party was Mr. Lindsey Caldwell, who was ably assisted by Messrs. Vernon Chapman, Tom Worthen, John Downes and Roland Parker. Mr. Donald L. Marshall, who had served the Mystic Glee Club as its director for the past two seasons, graciously relinquished his baton to the permanent conductor, Mr. William J. Cruger, recently discharged from the service. Many tributes were paid to Don Marshall for his untiring efforts in building up the numerical strength and advancing the musical ability of the glee club. A citation for outstanding service rendered by Mr. Marshall was read by the chairman of the Music Committee, Mr. Les Twohally, and an appropriate remembrance from the members of the club was presented to Don at the close of the evening.

In keeping with their usual Christmas custom the glee club will sing Christmas Carols at the Old South Church on Sunday morning. However, the Mystic Glee Club will resume its regular rehearsal schedule on January 7 to make preparation for the spring season ahead.

FLORINE CRITTENTON LEAGUE

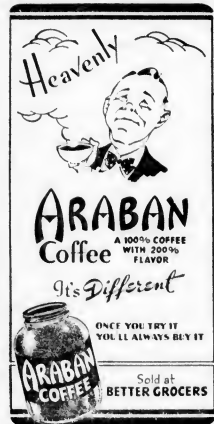

The second meeting of the Florine Crittenton Glee Club was held on Friday, Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. George S. Witham, 75 Bacon street. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Walter W. Witham at 2 o'clock. Roy John Niel, Mark of Arlington gave a very interesting talk, his subject, "Peace on Earth to Men of Good Will."

Mary Ranton Witham entertained with a group of piano solos, including some of her own compositions. Her program follows:

"Prelude for Sinda" by Mary Ranton Witham
"Nocturne in E Flat" by Chopin
"May Night" by Palmgrum
"Autobiography"

By Mary Ranton Witham
Waltz in A Flat by Brahms
A delicious tea was served by Mrs. Don Greer and her committee.

Mrs. Anson Burton, one of Winchester's older residents, observed her 90th birthday on Dec. 7 at her home, 183 Mystic Valley Parkway. She spent a happy day, with flowers and many cards, expressing the congratulations and best wishes of her many friends.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE

That high schoolers are most at home on the stage when portraying people of their own age was again ably demonstrated by the Junior Miss play, "Junior Miss," in the high school auditorium last Saturday evening. Appearing before a packed house in a play very well directed by Mr. David Frederic Kotkov, the high school faculty, the young people satisfied an appreciative audience.

"Junior Miss" is a play involving a "kid sister" in a series of trying incidents with her older sister and friends, her family, and the girl next door, but unlike many plays with this theme, "Junior Miss" is a starring vehicle for kid actors. Susan Hight, as her mother, held herself well in check and was a most convincing "adult" and "father" John Grimes, Richard Kleber as J. B. Curtis, and Richard Brackett as Willis Reynolds were considerably better than average in their presentation of adult roles.

Natalie Wasky as Fuffy Adams, an unusually good job with the sophisticated dialogue and made her self an amusing little upstart, contrasted very well with little sister and provided some rather well acted "scenes." Doris Clark as Ellen Curtis was attractive in her role and handled several emotional episodes with distinction. Joan Robinson played Hilda with enthusiasm. Parker Flagg, sailing for the nightingale John Rutherford, did an excellent job of catching on at the last minute. Arthur Tuton sang a telegram well. Brant van der Wyk really put something into his part. William Knights overcame the handicap of a frightening finger injury. Charles Enright aroused a series of reminiscent chuckles, and William Cunningham, James Maguire, John Patterson, and James Haggerty put in some well drilled appearances.

Mark Strawbridge arranged the settings with assistance from Klaus Hahn, Jack Wentworth, and Donald Goss. Marg Parkhurst, Rosemary Drouhan, and Joanna Johnston provided the personal properties. Barbara Elliott was stage manager and Anne Harris and Joan Craig were attractive in their roles and handled several emotional episodes with

Grade 1

Stoneham citizens at a special town meeting Monday night voted 150 to 18 in favor of permitting a new chronic and mental hospital to be built on the East Reservation. The hospital was approved at a public hearing a month ago.

Winchester has already approved the location, leaving Medford, Malden and Melrose yet to vote on approval of the site.

Several of the schools are planning for orchestra. Why not begin now, and study the violin, and become a member. Have small size violins for younger pupils, which are loaned without cost. For information call Win. 4735-M, Walter Little, Rice.

TRAINER KEY MAN

Goddu Plays Important Part in Success of High School Teams

If you are a regular attendant at high school sports events, especially football games, you have doubtless seen a tall man in a slouch hat and Navy blue belted gabardine coat prowling around the home team players, talking with them, prodding them here and there with knowing fingers, or kneading and rubbing refractory muscles that have gone lame or been bruised in action.

That would be Louis E. Goddu, "Lou" to the boys and coaches, and indeed, everyone whose residence in Winchester has been of any length of time. "Lou" is the high school trainer, and a good one, too. He has also lived all his life in town and knows and is known by everyone.

Now, except those close to high school athletics, know anything of "Lou's" value to the local teams and the part he has played in their success. Especially is this true of football, where minor injuries, such as those he treats so successfully, are most prevalent. Coach Knowlton, at the recent all sports banquet at high school, paid a high tribute to "Lou's" ability to get ailing football players back in the lineup with a minimum loss of time.

"Lou" wasn't born knowing all about lame backs and sore muscles, separations and "Charlie horses." An athlete himself, and a good one, in his school days, the smashing game he played at coverpoint on the hockey team, gave him a knee injury that hung on and kept "kicking up" more or less regularly.

After treating it through the regular channels without much relief, "Lou" decided to go at it himself, and what he found out about knees in the course of fixing up his own got him interested in massage and the treatment of athletic injuries, with the result that he decided to take a course in Swedish Massage.

Despite the fact that he had, and still has, an excellent job, "Lou" found time twice to complete the course leading to the diploma granted a graduate Swedish masseur. Since he became trainer of high school teams he has taken refresher courses in shoulder and deep back injuries.

"Lou" doesn't consider himself a physician and doesn't attempt to handle cases that are the province of a doctor. A year ago the school authorities, after he had been giving his time as an "unofficial trainer" of high school teams for four years, got steamed up over his activities and conducted an investigation.

They found out what those close to the athletic picture here had long known, that "Lou" was doing a great job and that the school and town are fortunate to have his services. He was as a result of the investigation vested with the title of official trainer. The boys, of course, swear by him, not only as a trainer, but as an adviser and friend. It's an off night during football season when there are not anywhere from seven to 17 boys up at the Goddu home on Goddu ave. to get their kinks ironed out, or to seek advice of all sorts.

Did you ever rub any one down? Try it sometime, and then ask yourself how you would like to multiply that effort by even three or four, a small evening indeed for "Lou." That will give you some idea of the effort he has expended in behalf of the boys high school athletes, to say nothing of the time and actual cash he has spent from his own pocket for supplies and equipment.

He has done and is doing a great job both for high school sports and for the boys. His capable handling of football injuries has resulted in players losing the very minimum time from their sport, and the boys will tell him their ailments where a physician or coach would get only a negative answer.

Now are the boys the only ones who have confidence in "Lou." Many parents of high school athletes have the highest regard for his opinions and treatment. All in all he's a great institution and a real asset to the town. A lot of people have come to realize this strongly!

"BOYS" 16TH YEAR

Robert E. "Bob" Fay of Park avenue has long been a member of the famous Box 52 Association, an organization of "dyed-in-the-wool fire-parkers," and in addition he is also a member in excellent standing of the Amalgamated Society of Santa Claus, Winchester Workshop No. 59.

Maybe Bob will be Kringle of the organization some day. Many will believe he rates the honor now and with good cause. For Bob has been playing Santa Claus for the youngsters of his neighborhood for the past 15 years, and he is planning a repeat performance this year, in costume as usual.

A year ago Bob made 29 calls in Winchester, West Medford and Medford Hillsides, his perambulations taking the entire morning and until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. He gets a great kick out of his job, thoroughly enjoying the kiddies' wide-eyed wonder. Needless to say the pleasure is reciprocated by the youngsters and their parents.

Bob generally has a few spares in his sack in case he has to make an unexpected stop. He never reveals his identity at new places, but one bright mother spotted the license of his car and traced him down. His next move is to get a sleigh and reindeer so he can really do the job right.

HIGH SCHOOL LOST TO ALUMNI

Service Sharp Grads Too Good For Locals

One of the best alumni teams in years took the current Winchester High School varsity basketballers in the high school gymnasium last Friday afternoon, 47-36. Really the kids did pretty well against the graduates.

Most of the alumni have been playing a lot of basketball on service teams, their hands were in, AND, they were in shape, something few graduate groups are. The winners led all the way, 14-0 at the quarter, 29-16 at the half and 29-26 with a quarter left to play. It was in this final quarter with Bob Maynard, former downtown military player, leading the way that the alumni pulled out to a commanding lead.

Maynard led the graduates with 11 points on four floor goals and three free tries. Big "Rog" Latham, high school center, led both teams with 14 points on five goals from the floor and four fouls. Capt. Pat Patterson racked up 12 points in a losing cause.

The graduates were too tall for the high school and generally controlled the ball off the offensive backboards. All in all it was a good game for both teams, and a particularly good one for the high school boys to have under their belts with the Middlesex League season commencing after vacation. Frankie Proviziano, former Winchester High, W. Abraham Academy and B. U. all around athlete, refereed the game.

HIGHLANDS MEN'S CLUB

District Attorney George A. Thompson will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Highlands Men's Club on Thursday evening, Jan. 3.

A committee on children's parties, consisting of Henry Clark Jr., James Robertson, Benjamin Marshall, Paschal Tofuri and Alfred Higgins has been appointed by President Roland Parker.

GALUFFO OUT OF SERVICE

"Pete" Galuffo of 13 Harvard street, former star fullback and co-captain of the high school football team with Tony DeToro, was honorably discharged from the Navy Wednesday in Boston with the rank of CPO.

"Pete" came home from Japan, his last place of duty. He was in service three years, spending 32 months out of home waters, in the Mediterranean and Pacific theatres. He served on an L. C. L. and later on an L. C. S., being last attached to Headquarters of that service in the Pacific.

Before entering the service "Pete" was attending Northeastern where he played varsity football. He told the Star he does not plan to return to college.

MODERNIZATION OF FEUDAL JAPAN

Only in the last 50 years have the Japanese been accustomed to success in foreign wars, and only in the last 40 years could they get a foothold on the continent of Asia. Nor were forces from the continent ever able to invade and subdue the Japanese islands. It was the modernization of Japan, says the National Geographic Society, which upset in very recent times a stalemate which had lasted since the beginning of time.

In the early centuries A. D. the Japanese barbarians in comparison with Koreans and Chinese, tried several times to invade Korea and were driven out. After the defeat of a Jap army and navy in 663 A. D. they gave up for over 300 years the attempt to expand on the mainland. In the late 1500's a strong emperor, Hideyoshi, twice launched strong expeditions at Korea, was driven back to his islands with heavy losses. In large part this was due to an able Korean admiral who used iron-clad "tortoise-boats" to ram Jap ships and cut the Nipponese supply line.

Neither could Japan be successfully invaded. The mighty Mongol emperor, Kublai Khan, twice tried in the late 1200's to saw the "divine wind" wreck whatever of his boats escaped the lighter Jap craft in an action not unlike the defeat of the Spanish Armada. By 1853 Japan's policy of seclusion was tipped the scales of power heavily, and the islanders began a policy of aggression which carried the emblem of the Rising Sun from the Aleutians to Burma and the farthest Indies in 1942. Now the accumulated might of its enemies has crushed the power of Nippon. For the first time in modern history Japan is a defeated nation. For the first time in all history foreign soldiers tread the ancient soil of Nippon.

FAMOUS "DANUBE" DANCE

Sliding its way between high mountain chains, cutting through valleys, meandering through lowlands, the Danube River flows like a great artery from the heart of Europe in its 1750 mile course, from the Black Forest to the Black Sea. This river, says the National Geographic Society, second in length to the Volga among Europe's rivers, but exceeds it in volume.

Feeding over 200 tributaries, some of which are themselves mighty rivers, the Danube drains an area larger than New Guinea. Among the Danube's tributaries, it is near its source a creek so narrow a man may take it in his stride, but by mid-course it is over 100 yards wide, broadens to a majestic three miles near the mouth. Every year more than 100 million tons of silt are swept downstream, building Europe's largest growing delta.

Situated near the point where Germany, France and Switzerland meet, the Danube's source is so near the border of the Rhine that rainfall in this region is said to have an equal chance of reaching either the North or Black Seas. Some 1100 miles apart, its waters, contrary to the popularly held belief, are never blue, but chalky or chocolate, and are navigable for 1600 miles. Navigation is difficult, for high water may vary 20 feet in a short distance, and rocks and sandbars keep river captains alerted. Ocean-going freighters steam 100 miles upstream, ships of 1500 tons reach Passau, on the old Austro-German frontier, and smaller craft carrying 100 tons can proceed to Linz, about 100 miles below the source.

In its first 600 miles the Danube rushes eastward through wild, rocky valleys, famous in German folklore. After passing more sedately through old Vienna, the river cleaves its way between the Alps and the Carpathians, soon meanders south across the wide Hungarian plain. Reaching Yugoslavia, it is turned east again by the rugged Dinaric Alps. After boiling through the Iron Gate, a narrow, narrow two-mile gorge on the Romanian-Yugoslav border, its course follows a wide eastward arc, is shoved northward by the Dobruja hills, finally gets enough power from two large tributaries to push its way eastward to the sea. There it divides into three main channels, make a delta bigger than Delaware. Dredges keep open the middle of the three channels.

Commercially speaking the Danube is one of the most important waterways in Europe, but its lower half passes through the comparatively undeveloped Balkan countries, lands its freight on an almost-closed sea far from most important shipping lanes. More than twice as long as the Rhine, its volume of commerce is less than half.

In spite of this, Danube trade was increasing before the war. The river bed is mostly wide; water supply, stable. The river connected seven prewar capitals, flowed through three capitals—Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade—and near a fourth, Bucharest. Countless river ports were linked with a means of cheap transportation for bulky goods. Grain, lumber, oil, wool traveled westward; coal and manufactured goods drifted eastward.

The Danube, an Anglicized word, native Latin. Germans know the river as Donau; Czechs, as Duna; Hungarians, as Dunaj. Fairer down the river Yugoslavians call it Sava, and the Danes, as Sava. The Danes, and the Russians refer to it as Dunaj.

From 1919 to 1920 an international commission regulated river traffic, supervised maintenance of channels. An earlier commission, started in 1856, tamed the river, dredging sandbars in the lower course, blasting channels through the mountain passes, creating for the first time a long and important commercial route.

Here's Your New Car--Stalled by Strike

Your 1946 automobile may be stranded on the assembly lines. A nationwide strike has paralyzed General Motors, the world's largest producer of passenger cars, trucks and buses, forcing consumers to wait indefinitely for essential transportation.

The strike was called by the United Automobile Workers (UAW) to enforce demands for a 30 per cent wage increase. The BODIES BY FISHER stand idle until the GM strike is settled.

RUGGED GM TRUCKS for commercial users must wait, too.

How Long Must You Wait?

Union flatly rejected a 10 per cent increase offered by General Motors as a living cost adjustment. The strike involves 15,000 hourly-rated employees. They are losing nearly $2,000,000 in wages daily, and these losses exact indirectly every phase of the nation's economy. Coincidentally, striking UAW members have barred 5,000 office workers from their jobs in GM plants.

PIERTO RICO
 The rapid material progress made in recent years by Puerto Rico was emphasized by President Truman when he recently instructed Congress to take steps to liberalize the government of Uncle Sam's tropical island possession.
 When Puerto Rico and the Philippines were ceded by Spain to the United States in 1898, Uncle Sam promised the Philippines eventual freedom. Puerto Rico was annexed with no such promise. Now, 47 years later, plans which may encompass full independence for both are scheduled for winter debate by the U. S. Congress.
 Behind the Puerto Rican issue are native leaders of the island's affairs. Some want full independence at once. Virtually all ask, at least, for a broader governing body to replace the Organic Act of 1917, which granted American citizenship to all the island's people but limited their citizenship rights.
 That act, with amendments, provides that the island's governor shall be from the continental United States, and that he and other top officials including five Supreme Court justices shall be appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate of the United States. Puerto Ricans aged 21 and over elect the members of their own 19-man Senate and 39-man House, and their Resident Commissioner at Washington.
 Seeking their full rights as United States citizens, the islanders would like to choose their own governor, who has the power to veto the acts of their island congress. And since the U. S. Congress can also override actions of the island legislators, Puerto Ricans would like their elected Resident Commissioner at Washington, who sits with the U. S. House of Representatives, to have a vote as well as a voice in that body.
Vital Hemisphere Defense Position
 Puerto Rico is eastern anchor of the Greater Antilles chain of West Indian islands, says the National Geographic Society. One of the most fertile in the Caribbean, it is roughly rectangular, 100 miles long from east to west and 35 miles wide. Its position, 1,000 miles northeast of the Panama Canal, 1,000 miles southeast of Miami, and 200 miles east of Cuba, was strategic for war-time air and naval defense operations. It was on the sub-infested shipping lanes between Europe and the Canal.
 The island's population has more than doubled under Uncle Sam's stewardship, and now totals almost two million—540 people to the square mile. As a result, labor is plentiful and the soil is intensively farmed from the shores almost to the summits of mountains, which rise to 1,000 feet near the island's center. Social unrest, natural manifestation of population density, was heightened when the German submarine menace sharply reduced Puerto Rico's flow of trade with the United States.
 Three-fourths of the islanders are white; the rest Negroes or of mixed blood. Spanish is the language of the people; English is common in business and government. Sugar production is easily the largest industry. Turned out normally at the rate of about a million tons a year, sugar accounts for other industries such as the manufacture of molasses and the distillation of rum and alcohol.
 The growing and processing of coffee, tobacco and citrus fruits follow the production of sugar in the island's industrial scheme. The making of needlework and hand embroidery has increased until it accounts for about $20,000,000 in annual exports. Puerto Rico, cigars and straw hats, well known to continental Americans.
 Puerto Rico, meaning rich port, got its name from Columbus, and is the only land long known to the Stars and Stripes on which the New World's accredited discoverer set foot. Landing there on November 19, 1493, he claimed the island for Spain. When, in 1508, Spaniards withdrew from the port of San Juan, Spain had relinquished her last slender foothold in the Western Hemisphere. First governor of the island was Ponce de Leon, who moved from Puerto Rico to Florida in his quest for the Fountain of Youth. San Juan, port and capital on the north coast east of center, is the island metropolis, counting 170,000 people. Ponce on the south coast has 105,000. Mayaguez, on the east coast, numbers 70,000. A considerable tourist traffic began to develop a decade ago through organized efforts to attract visitors. At the outbreak of the war, had excellent steamship and airline facilities, and had completed 1,750 miles of paved auto highway and 350 miles of railroad within its shores.
